Each loan marked * is an open-end loan. The balance used to compute the finance charge on open-end loans is the unpaid principal balance at the time of the transaction. On the date an advance is taken, the amount of the advance is added to the unpaid principal balance. On the date a payment is made, the finance charge and any late charges due are deducted from the payment amount and the remainder, if any, is subtracted from the unpaid principal balance. The Annual Percentage Rate (APR) is shown in the loan summary below. The phrase "(MAY VARY)" means that this loan has a variable Annual Percentage Rate.

Each loan marked * is an open-end loan. The balance used to compute the finance charge on open-end loans is the unpaid principal balance at the time of the transaction. On the date an advance is taken, the amount of the advance is added to the unpaid principal balance. On the date a payment is made, the finance charge and any late charges due are deducted from the payment amount and the remainder, if any, is subtracted from the unpaid principal balance. The Annual Percentage Rate (APR) is shown in the loan summary below. The phrase "(MAY VARY)" means that this loan has a variable Annual Percentage Rate.
