Conflicts; Procedure for Consent

5.1 Conflicts. As of the Effective Date, the Firm represents that it has provided adequate information to DOJ related to any conflicts of interest within the meaning of the Oregon Rules of Professional Conduct ("ORCP") for purposes of obtaining the informed consent of DOJ.

5.2 Request for Consent. After the Effective Date, if the Firm determines that a conflict of interest exists under the ORCP between the interests of DOJ and the interests of another client it represents or proposes to represent, and DOJ has not consented to the conflict of interest, the Firm shall deliver a written request for consent to the Supervising Attorney, with a copy to the conflict consent coordinator, according to the provisions of section 13.1. The Firm shall send all notices sent by e-mail to the following address: ConflictCoordinator@doj.state.or.us. Consent is not effective until the Deputy Attorney General, the Attorney General, or the Attorney General’s designee has delivered written consent to the conflict of interest to the Firm.

5.3 Additional Restrictions. Nothing under this Article V waives or diminishes the restrictions on SAAGs set forth in Section 7.2. In addition, nothing in this Agreement limits the Firm’s obligations to comply with its ethical obligations in all respects in delivering Services, including the requirements of the ORCP. The Firm shall comply with ORCP 1.7 and must seek DOJ’s informed consent under Section
5.2 If the Firm's representation of a client adverse to another State entity in a particular matter will be adverse to DOJ within the meaning of ORCP 1.7.

Article VI
Termination

6.1 Parties' Right to Terminate for Convenience. This Agreement may be terminated at any time by mutual written consent of DOJ and the Firm. DOJ may terminate this Agreement for its convenience immediately upon delivery of written notice to the Firm. The Firm may terminate this Agreement effective upon delivery of thirty (30) days written notice to DOJ, provided termination is consistent with the Firm's ethical obligations.

6.2 DOJ's Right to Terminate for Cause. DOJ may terminate or modify this Agreement, effective upon delivery of written notice from DOJ to the Firm, or at such later date as DOJ may establish in writing, under any of the following conditions:

6.2.1 Funding from federal, state, or other sources is not obtained and continued at levels sufficient to pay for the Firm's Services;

6.2.2 Federal or state laws, regulations, or guidelines are modified or interpreted in such a way that either the Services are prohibited or DOJ is prohibited from paying for the Services from the planned funding source;

6.2.3 The Firm or SAAG no longer holds any license or certificate that is required to perform the Services, or the Attorney General or Deputy Attorney General withdraws the SAAG appointment of any of the Firm's attorneys;

6.2.4 The Firm fails to provide Services called for by this Agreement within the time specified herein or any extension thereof; or

6.2.5 The Firm fails to discharge any other obligation imposed on it by this Agreement, or so fails to pursue the Services as to endanger the Firm's performance under this Agreement in accordance with its terms and fails to correct such failure within five (5) business days after delivery of written notice from DOJ, or such other period as DOJ may authorize or require.

6.3 Remedies. The rights and remedies provided in this Article VI are not exclusive, and are in addition to any other rights and remedies provided by law or under this Agreement. Termination of this Agreement pursuant to Sections 6.1 or 6.2 is without prejudice to any obligations or liabilities of either party already accrued prior to such termination. However, upon receiving a notice of termination under this Article VI, the Firm shall immediately cease all activities under this Agreement, unless DOJ expressly directs otherwise in the notice of termination.

6.4 Revocation of Appointment. All SAAG appointments made pursuant to this Agreement are revoked upon Agreement termination. If an individual SAAG is no longer associated with the Firm prior to Agreement termination, then the appointment of that attorney as SAAG is revoked upon the date that the attorney is no longer associated with the Firm.
6.5 Immediate Surrender of Work Product. Upon Agreement termination, the Firm shall immediately surrender to DOJ all items listed in Section 8.3.

8.3 Surrender of Work Product. Upon request by the Supervising Attorney, the Firm shall surrender to DOJ or to anyone the Supervising Attorney designates, all copies of final versions of any written work product, documents, research or objects or other tangible things needed to complete the Services and any work product requested hereunder.

8.4 Reports. Upon request by the Supervising Attorney, the Firm shall provide reports summarizing significant Services performed under this Agreement and developments in any deliverables, proceedings or negotiations.

10.2 Workers’ Compensation. All employers, including the Firm, that employ subject workers who perform work under this Agreement in the State of Oregon shall comply with ORS 656.017 and provide the required Workers’ Compensation coverage, unless such employers are exempt under ORS 656.126. The Firm shall ensure that each of its subcontractors complies with these requirements.

10.3 Automobile Liability. For all vehicles used in connection with the Services performed under this Agreement, the Firm shall maintain automobile liability insurance with limits of not less than those required by the Oregon Financial Responsibility Law.

Article XI

11.1 Supervising Attorney. The supervising attorney for this Agreement is Lisa Umscheid, Assistant Attorney General ("Supervising Attorney"). The Attorney in Charge of DOJ’s Business Transactions Section, General Counsel Division ("AIC"), may designate a successor Supervising Attorney upon written notice to the Firm. Only the Supervising Attorney or another person designated by the AIC upon notice to the Firm is authorized to act on behalf of DOJ under this Agreement. The Supervising Attorney’s authority may be temporarily delegated to another attorney at DOJ by notice to the Firm from either the Supervising Attorney or the AIC.

11.2 Direction. The Firm shall obtain the Supervising Attorney’s direction and written authorization prior to performing Services under this Agreement. The Firm shall submit all interpretations of Oregon law to the Supervising Attorney for review prior to the issuance of advice based on such interpretation. The Firm shall obtain the Supervising Attorney’s approval prior to the initiation of any court, administrative or settlement actions.

11.3 SAAG Judgment. The Firm shall exercise independent judgment and control with respect to the means and manner of performance under this Agreement.

Article XII
Firm Status; Taxes; Certificates

12.1 Firm Status. The Firm is an independent contractor under this Agreement. The Firm represents and warrants that the Firm and each SAAG (i) are not employees of the State of Oregon, (ii) are not employees of the federal government, and (iii) notwithstanding their standing as state officers pursuant to the Oregon Constitution as set forth in Section 7.2 above, are not officers, employees, or agents of the State, as those terms are used or defined in ORS 30.260 and 30.265.

12.2 Taxes. The Firm is responsible for all federal and state taxes applicable to any compensation or payments paid to the Firm under this Agreement. 13.2 Exhibits and Schedules. Exhibit A, Exhibit B-1, Exhibit B-2, and Exhibit C are attached to this Agreement and incorporated by this reference.

13.3 Subcontracts and Assignments; Successors in Interest. The Firm shall not enter into any subcontracts for any of the Services, or assign or transfer any of its interest in this Agreement, without DOJ's prior written consent. DOJ may, as a condition to giving its prior written consent, require that any subcontract contain such provisions as DOJ deems reasonably appropriate. Consent to any subcontract does not relieve the Firm of any of its duties and obligations under this Agreement. Nor does it relieve the Firm, a SAAG and supervised attorneys of their respective ethical obligations and professional liabilities. The provisions of this Agreement are binding upon and inure to the benefit of the parties hereto, and their respective successors and permitted assigns, if any.
13.4 Third Party Beneficiaries; Amendments.

13.4.1 Third Party Beneficiaries. DOJ and the Firm are the only parties to this Agreement and are the only parties entitled to enforce its terms. Nothing in this Agreement gives or is intended to give any benefit or right, whether directly, indirectly or otherwise, to third persons or entities unless such third persons or entities are individually identified by name and are expressly described as intended beneficiaries of the terms of this Agreement.

13.4.2 Amendments. This Agreement may be amended only by a written amendment signed by DOJ and Firm.

13.5 Funds Available and Authorized. DOJ represents to the Firm that it has sufficient funds currently available and authorized for expenditure to finance the costs of this Agreement within its biennial appropriation or limitation. The payment of amounts by DOJ under this Agreement attributable to Services performed after the last day of the current biennium is contingent upon the DOJ receiving from the Oregon Legislative Assembly appropriations, limitations, or other expenditure authority sufficient to allow DOJ, in the exercise of its reasonable administrative discretion, to continue to make payments under this Agreement. If the Oregon Legislative Assembly fails to approve sufficient appropriations, limitations or other expenditure authority to DOJ, DOJ may terminate this Agreement without penalty or liability to the State.

13.6 Records Maintenance; Access. The Firm shall maintain all financial records relating to this Agreement in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles. In addition, the Firm shall maintain any other records pertinent to this Agreement in such a manner as to clearly document the Firm’s performance hereunder. The Firm shall permit DOJ, the Oregon Secretary of State’s Office, the federal government, and their duly authorized representatives, to have access to such financial records and other books, documents, papers, plans and writings of the Firm pertinent to this Agreement to enable them to perform examinations and audits, and make excerpts and transcripts. The Firm shall retain and keep all such financial records, books, documents, papers, plans, and writings for a minimum of six (6) years or such longer period as may be required by applicable law, following final payment and termination of this Agreement, or until the conclusion of any audit, controversy, or litigation arising out of or related to this Agreement, whichever date is later.

13.7 Choice of Law; Designation of Forum; Federal Forum.

13.7.1 Choice of Law. The laws of the State of Oregon (without giving effect to its conflicts of law principles) govern all matters arising out of or relating to this Agreement, including, without limitation, its validity, interpretation, construction, performance, and enforcement.

13.7.2 Designation of Forum. Any party bringing a legal action or proceeding against any other party arising out of or relating to this Agreement shall bring the legal action or proceeding in the Circuit Court of the State of Oregon for Marion County. Each party hereby consents to the exclusive jurisdiction of such court, waives any objection to venue, and waives any claim that such forum is an inconvenient forum.
13.7.3 Federal Forum. Notwithstanding Section 13.7.2, if a claim must be brought in a federal forum, then it must be brought and adjudicated solely and exclusively within the United States District Court for the District of Oregon. This section applies to a claim brought against the State of Oregon only to the extent Congress has appropriately abrogated the State of Oregon's sovereign immunity and is not consent by the State of Oregon to be sued in federal court. This section is also not a waiver by the State of Oregon of any form of immunity, including but not limited to sovereign immunity and immunity based on the Eleventh Amendment to the Constitution of the United States.

13.8 Force Majeure. Neither the State nor the Firm are responsible for delay or default caused by fire, riot, acts of God, or war, where such cause was beyond the State's or the Firm's respective reasonable control. The Firm shall, however, make all reasonable efforts to remove or eliminate such cause of delay or default, and shall, upon the cessation of the cause, diligently pursue performance of its obligations under this Agreement.

13.9 Severability. The parties agree that if any term or provision of this Agreement is declared by a court of competent jurisdiction to be illegal or in conflict with any law, the validity of the remaining terms and provisions are not affected, and the rights and obligations of the parties will be construed and enforced as if the Agreement did not contain the particular term or provision held to be invalid.

13.10 Waiver. No provision in this Agreement may be waived, except pursuant to a writing executed by the party against whom the waiver is sought to be enforced. A waiver made on one occasion is effective only in that instance and only for the purpose that it is given and will not be construed as a waiver on any future occasion.

13.11 Execution and Counterparts. This Agreement may be executed in several counterparts, all of which when taken together constitute one Agreement binding on all parties, notwithstanding that all parties are not signatories to the same counterpart. Each copy of the Agreement so executed constitutes an original.

13.12 Disclosure of Tax ID Number. The Firm must provide the Firm's federal tax ID number. This number is requested pursuant to OAR 150-305.100. Numbers disclosed pursuant to this authority will be used for the administration of state, federal and local tax laws.

13.13 Survival. The covenants, warranties, representations, rights, and obligations set forth in Article V, Article VIII, Article IX, Sections 13.6, 13.7, 13.9 and this Section 13.13 survive termination of this Agreement.
