

BELLARMINE
Jesuit Retreat House

“Growing Together in Wisdom and Grace”

May 10-11, 2019 (Fri-Sat)

Mary McKeon & Catherine Palenik
An Overnight Retreat for Mothers & Daughters

“And Jesus advanced in wisdom, and age, and grace with God and men” (Luke 2:52). So too are we called to grow emotionally and spiritually in our relationship with God and one another. This happens through the deepening of these relationships, and how we experience and relate to the significant women in our life is key.

Join us for a women’s overnight retreat for mothers and daughters, nieces and aunts, sisters, cousins, friends...

Meet Mary McKeon

Mary McKeon is a Bellarmine ministry team member and a spiritual director. She is a graduate of Marquette University. She taught school in Milwaukee before moving to Washington, DC to work for the US Senate. She and her late husband have a daughter, son-in-law and three grandsons. Mary received spiritual director training at Manresa Retreat House in Bloomfield Hills, MI, where she became their first Director of Women’s Ministry.

Meet Catherine Palenik

Catherine Palenik grew up in Bloomfield Hills, MI, the only child of Mary and David McKeon. She graduated from Villanova University with a BA in sociology and history. Catherine received a Masters of Social Work at University of Michigan, where she met her husband, Chris. Catherine did geriatric social work and school social work prior to deciding to stay home with their oldest son. Chris and Catherine now live in Geneva, IL and have three active little boys.
