RESPONSE FORM

A Founding Vision

In 1965, as plans for Lincoln Center for the Performing Arts neared completion, the inspired patronage of Miss Alice Tully was the catalyst for the creation of a resident company devoted exclusively to the performance of chamber music.

Founding Artistic Director Charles Wadsworth accepted the challenge to create an artistic vision for the organization and, with the generosity and leadership of Miss Tully, the Chamber Music Society performed its first concert in September of 1969 in its permanent home, Alice Tully Hall, signaling an extraordinary new era for chamber music and its devotees worldwide.

Today, under the inspired artistic leadership of David Finckel and Wu Han, CMS gives hundreds of performances each season at home in New York City, across the country, and around the globe, reaching new audiences and new heights with every passing season. The Chamber Music Society is committed to its extensive education programs, including the CMS Two residency for young artists, inventive commissioning of new works, and innovative radio, video, and online broadcasting activities.

A Lasting Legacy

From the beginning, The Chamber Music Society of Lincoln Center has benefited tremendously from the foresight of its founders and charter members, whose vision and commitment fostered an enduring tradition of generosity.

The Alice Tully Circle creates an opportunity for recognition of those friends who are making similar commitments today through bequests and other types of deferred gifts to build a healthy endowment and expand the organization's capacity to meet future challenges.
