Yorktown Police report the arrest of a fifteen year old Yorktown, New York resident, whose name is being withheld due to eligibility for Youthful Offender Status, who is charged with Criminal Trespass, a Class "B" Misdemeanor.

On October 7, 2015 at about 8:52 am, Officer Paniccia, the Lakeland High School Resource Officer, was alerted by staff members that an unauthorized subject had entered the school. Officer Paniccia assisted the school staff as the school was placed into a "Lockdown - Shelter in Place" condition while additional officers responded to the scene. It was determined that the unauthorized subject was a fifteen year old former student, who allegedly entered the school without permission of the school's administrators. The former student was quickly located, detained and removed from school grounds by the responding officers. As a result, he was subsequently charged with Criminal Trespass.

The fifteen year old was released on his own recognizance to his parent. He is scheduled to appear at the Westchester County Department of Probation on October 20, 2015 at 9:00 am to answer the above charge.
