Lackawanna Blues will be performed without an intermission.

MARCH 5 - APRIL 21, 2019 MARK TAPER FORUM

Lackawanna Blues was originally produced by the Joseph Papp Public Theater/New York Shakespeare Festival. George C. Wolfe, Producing Director, April 2001. Original Direction by Loretta Greco.

Please turn off all electronic devices such as cellular phones and watch alarms. The use of any recording device, either audio or video, and the taking of photographs, with or without flash, is strictly prohibited.

In Memoriam

Lackawanna Blues is dedicated to the memory of Bill Sims Jr.

or over 20 years and dozens of projects, Bill Sims Jr. and I have stood shoulder to shoulder. Whether in cafes, arenas, living rooms, or on Broadway, Bill's music, spirit, intellect, and passion saturated everything he touched. His music has been the bedrock, the foundation, the warm blanket that engulfed everything we've done. Every note Bill played had to be the truth. Everything he wrote was life itself...his life, his story...our lives and history...clearly, profoundly, dignified, and authentic.

Bill loved Lackawanna Blues as much and maybe even more than I did. I once said to him, "I don't know if I could do Lackawanna Blues if you aren't there." And in his classic Bill Sims Jr. cool he responded, "I'll be there. You might not see me, but I'll be there."

Watch and listen closely—that soothing touch you feel...that warm embrace...Bill and Nanny spreading some love our way.

"Well Done."

Ruben Santiago-Hudson

CHRIS THOMAS KING (Performer and Additional Music Compositions). Born in 1962, New Orleans blues guitarist, composer, and actor Chris Thomas King became the last major folk-blues discovery of the 20™ century when he was discovered in Louisiana in 1979 by a folklorist from the Smithsonian Institute in Washington, D.C. He was introduced to the world by venerable folk label Arhoolie Records as an authentic folk-blues successor to Lead Belly, Muddy Waters, Robert Johnson, and Jelly Roll Morton. As the darling of blues purists and aficionados, King shocked the music world in the early '90s when he embraced hip hop modernity and digital aesthetics, turning the blues world upside down. In 1999, Chris Thomas King was chosen by the Coen brothers to play the role of itinerant bluesman Tommy Johnson alongside George Clooney in the Academy Award-winning movie O Brother, Where Art Thou? King followed this with a major acting role in another Academy Award-winning film, Ray, as band leader

Lowell Fulson. Furthermore, King scored music for both O Brother, Where Art Thou? and Ray's award-winning soundtracks. Forty years after becoming the last major folk-blues discovery of the 20TH century, King, whose career is a coda for the folk-blues revival of the '60s, is today one of the most important artists in the world for having changed the way we think of blues. Having superseded the success of his predecessors, selling more than 10 million records in America—a remarkable feat for an blues artist—the multi-talented Grammy and Country Music Award (CMA) winner, with 16 albums and dozens of films to his credit, continues to headline theatres and festivals worldwide. His latest album is Hotel Voodoo.

BILL SIMS JR. (Original Music Compositions) was an internationally respected vocalist, multi-instrumentalist, and "Master of the Blues." He began playing piano at age four, and by 14 he was playing professionally in a rhythm and blues group. A Warner Bros. recording artist, Mr. Sims also was an accomplished musical director and lent his talents to many theatre and film productions in New York and the United States. He won the Obie Award for his original compositions in Lackawanna Blues, as well as the Drama Desk Award for Outstanding Music in a Play for the Tony Awardwinning revival of Jitney in 2017. Mr. Sims also was nominated for a Grammy for And I Still Rise. Additional theatre credits include Ma Rainey's Black Bottom and August Wilson's Two Trains Running (Two River Theater) and The Piano Lesson (Hartford Stage and Signature Theatre). Mr. Sims was the subject of the acclaimed documentary An American Love Story (PBS), for which he composed many of the songs on the soundtrack. Other film credits include Lackawanna Blues, New York Stories, Miss Ruby's House, American Gangster, and Cadillac Records.
