Background Information/Teacher Helps

Preschool-K • #NT12

Those who followed Jesus' ministry were polarized to further extremes by the event recorded in John 12:1-8, Mark 14:3-11 and Matthew 26:6-16. The scene occurred two days before Passover during the last week of Jesus' life, in Bethany at the home of Simon the (former) leper. Mary, Martha and Lazarus (whom Jesus raised) were all at this dinner. They had all experienced Jesus' love in miraculous ways. Mary responded to Jesus' love by anointing His feet with precious oil.

It was customary to anoint the head and feet of honored guests with oil after washing as a sign of love and respect. In other contexts, anointing signified chosen of God and was used to name priests. "Spices and ointments were quite costly because they had to be imported. Frequently they were used as an investment because they occupied a small space, were portable, and were easily negotiable in the open market. Mary's offering was valued at three hundred denarii (v.5), approximately a year's wages for an ordinary workingman. Perhaps it represented her life savings. She presented it as an offering of love and gratitude, prompted by Jesus' restoration of her brother to the family circle. Wiping his feet with her hair was a gesture of utmost devotion and reverence. The penetrative fragrance of the ointment that filled the house told all present of her sacrificial gift.... His remonstrance over the gift of the ointment revealed that he [Judas] had a sharp sense of financial values and no appreciation of human values. Pouring the ointment on Jesus seemed to him an economic waste. Mary, on the contrary, was the only one who was sensitive to the impending death of Jesus and who was willing to give a material expression of her esteem for him. ... The contrast of the attitude of Mary with that of Judas is unmistakable. Mary offered her best to Jesus in sacrificial love; Judas was coldly utilitarian." [1]

This polarizing event showed Mary as a lover of Jesus who held back nothing to honor Him. Others in the Mark account paid lip service to Jesus' agenda by the suggestion of giving to the poor because they resented Mary's lavish gift.

Set Up

Incorporation Lg. Group

The day of class – [1] Cut out a star, heart, cross, Jesus/lamb, and treasure chest for each child. [2] Put the small stuffed animal/toy, picture book, small ball, Bible and large copies of star, heart, cross, Jesus/lamb and perfume in the treasure box. [3] Find some objects in the room and hide them for the Treasure Hunt.

Activity Stations:

- Treasure Hunt
  - Instructions: Tell the children what objects are hidden and have them search for them.
- Throw your waste away [1]
  - Instructions: Divide the class into two groups. The two teams are next door neighbors and they are out in their front yard. The groups should stand on opposite “yards” with the rope being the fence. (Have two adults or student assistants hold the rope). Each group starts with the same number of balls on their side of the yard. The object is to throw your balls (waste) in the other team's yard. Ask the kids to make believe that the balls are something they don't like (such as beets, spinach, smelly socks, etc.). Explain that they are to get rid of the waste from their yard by throwing it over the fence. (Variation: You can have them roll them under the fence.) When the teacher says stop, the team with the least amount of “waste” in their yard wins. Talk with the kids about how it is easy to throw away things they don't like but that they will learn later of a woman who “threw away” something she loved. Ask the children how they would feel if the balls were their favorite toys; would they throw them over the fence to the other yard?

Introduction Lg. Group

Instructions: Put the treasure box in front of the children. Take the items out as you talk about them.

Jesus said, "... where your treasure is, your heart will be also." (Point to the treasure box) Do you know what this is? This is a treasure box. It doesn't have any _____ in here. (Add what the children said balls were in the “Throw away your waste” game.) Inside are things that children love very much. They are treasures. How many of you have a favorite stuffed animal/toy? Do you have a special book you like to look at, or how about a ball/game? We all have things that we treasure. Today we are going to learn about a lady in the Bible named Mary who had a treasure.

Listen to see if you can guess what Mary's treasure was.

Transition

"A Gift for Jesus", The Beginner's Bible, pages 423-426 OR "Mary's Gift" pp 459-463 in older edition.)

Instructions: Read the story and then discuss the following.

Mary had some perfume. It was her treasure. It was the most important thing she owned. What did Mary do with the perfume? (She poured it on Jesus.) If the perfume was Mary's treasure, why did she pour it on Jesus? She poured it on Jesus because she loved Jesus even more than her perfume. Her friends thought she made a very bad choice. Did Mary make a bad choice? (No.) She gave her special treasure to Jesus because she loved Him so much. Jesus had told His disciples, "... where your treasure is, your heart will be also." Mary knew that Jesus is the best treasure. Her heart loved Jesus more than anything else.

Let's look in the treasure box to see what else is in here. Here's a Bible that tells us everything we need to know about Jesus. We also have a star that says, "I am special to Jesus." We are each special to Jesus. We are Jesus' great treasures! Isn't that amazing? Here's another wonderful treasure—a heart that says, "Jesus loves me." Oh, look at this one! It's a cross that says, "Jesus died for my bad choices." He died so we can be His friends. What a wonderful friend! Jesus is the best treasure! And here's a lamb and a shepherd that says, "Jesus cares for me like a shepherd." Jesus will take care of us wherever we are, whatever we are doing, all the time. WOW! Jesus is the best treasure. He takes care of us and gives us everything we need.

The Bible tells us that Jesus is the best treasure, more than our toys, more than anything. Jesus loves us more than anything. He loves us so much that He died on the cross for us. He loves us so much that He wants all of us to be His friends and to go to heaven to live with Him when we die. God says we have to tell Him that we are sorry for our bad choices, thank Him that Jesus died on the cross for our bad choices and ask Jesus to come into our hearts. When Jesus comes into our hearts He helps us love Him more than toys.

Let's pray. We will talk to Jesus and thank Him that He loves us so much that He died on the cross for us. Let's ask Him to help us love Him more than anything else.

Let's make a craft to remind us that God has given us wonderful treasures, but Jesus is the best treasure.

Learning
Activity#1
Lg. Group

Craft – Treasure Bag

- Instructions: Give each child one of each of the pictures and some jewel stickers. Color the items for the treasure bag and put the four pictures in the bag. Write children's names on the baggie.
- As the children work, talk with them about the things going in the treasure bag. They are the best treasures because they tell us how much Jesus loves us and wants to be our best friend. He wants to take care of us and help us.

Learning
Activity#2
Lg. Group

Treasure Hunt

- Instructions: Do another treasure hunt with the children who would like to participate or have the children hide things for each other to find.

Learning
Activity#3
Sm. Groups

Mary gave up the most valuable thing she had for Jesus. She loved Jesus more than her perfume – more than anything – so she gave her special treasure to Him. Jesus is our best treasure, more than toys or anything else. He loved us so much that He died on the cross for our sins.

- What is your favorite toy? Would it be hard for you to give it away?
- If you had a chance to give something to Jesus, what would you give Him?
- What can you do to show Jesus you love Him because He is the best treasure?

Treasure or Waste?

Concept: Jesus is worthy of total commitment

Passage: Jn. 12:1-8

Key Verse: Matt. 6:21 "... where your treasure is, your heart will be also."

(Bible Guy and Mrs. Bible Guy enter with a bag of "treasures." Mr. B.G. is wearing a baseball cap.)

Mrs. B.G.: I know it will be hard, but it's worth it.

B.G.: I agree. I would give anything I have to Jesus.

sees kids

Oh, Hi kids! You'll never guess where we're going!

Mrs. B.G.: We are going to visit Jesus! We heard that he will be coming to a town a long way away, but we want to see him and spend time with him so we are going to make that long trip.

B.G.: Yea, I'm going to miss the biggest game of the season to go there.

Mrs. B.G.: And I won't be able to have my birthday party because we'll be on our trip. We also won't be able to take our vacation to the Sea of Galilee this year. But we know that Jesus is more special than a baseball game or a party or vacation...

B.G.: This is a bag of our most favorite things—our treasures. We want to give Jesus these things because we love him so much. We want to show him that being with him is worth more than any treasure we have.

Go through the bag, item by item. Hold each item up and ask the kids, "Is Jesus worth _____? YES!"

Mrs. B.G.: We were wondering... if you had a chance to see Jesus in person, what would you want to give him?

Wait for kids to answer

B.G.: Well, you know what? Jesus wants to give you a treasure. He wants to forgive you for all your wrong choices and come live in your heart.

Mrs. B.G.: If you have asked Jesus into your heart, you have a great treasure. It is the most special treasure you can ever have.

B.G.: You can spend time with Jesus, too. Do you know how?

Wait for answers

When you come here and hear about the Bible or your mom or dad reads the Bible to you at home, that is spending time with Jesus. Or maybe you spend time talking to Jesus ...praying?

Mrs. B.G.: Would you sometimes rather watch a video or play, but instead you come here? Maybe sometimes you have to have a babysitter or you have to stay up late so your parents can go and learn about Jesus. That's because Jesus is worth it! He is a treasure that is more valuable than anything.

B.G.: That's why we are leaving right now to see Jesus and give him our treasures.
