CURRENT SOMMELIER SELECTIONS

CHARDONNAY, 2015 HARTFORD COURT WINERY

Small and low-yielding vineyards deliver meager amounts of expressive and personality-rich wine. This single-vineyard Hartford Court Chardonnays total as few as 93 cases and up to about 800 cases. Cool climate Sonoma Coast and Russian River Valley Chardonnay vineyards are singularly expressive. Those that are planted with multiple clones, specially matched to their sites, also reflect the distinctive terroir in these high-risk, high-reward locations. Robert Parker comments that “Hartford Family Winery is one of the most impressively run wineries in the Russian River AVA.”

CHARBONO, 2013 AUGUST BRIGGS | MONTE ROSSO VINEYARD

Charbono is one of the rarest grape varieties in California, with only about 80 acres planted. About half that total is in Napa Valley; August Briggs is lucky enough to source some excellent Charbono from their neighbors in Calistoga, the Frediani family. Through genetic testing this variety has been determined to be the same grape as Corbeau in France and Bonarda in Italy. Planted back in the 1920s, the Frediani Charbono vineyard produces low yields with the ultimate in flavor concentration.

PINOT NOIR, 2014 LA PETITE GRACE | DIORA

Winemaker James Ewart is dedicated to the high-touch, vineyard-to-bottle journey of the wines he creates. After 10 months in barrel, James tasted and selected the final blend: 96% Pinot Noir, 2% Grenache and 2% Syrah. 30% of the grapes bypassed de-stemming and went directly into the fermenters as whole clusters. The remaining fruit was processed into open-top stainless fermenters for a five-day cold soak with manual punch downs.
