

- We expect an open attitude from our visitors towards other guests, regardless of their origin, gender, sexual orientation, religion and age. We reserve the right to ban or remove visitors from our club who do not adhere to these rules and/or show aggressive, rowdy, homophobic, transphobic, sexist, racist or validist behavior.
- Sexual harassment will not be tolerated in our club. If you experience or notice any form of harassment, please report it to our staff on duty. Our employees are instructed to ensure the safety of our visitors.
- Visitors must be 21 years or older. In case of doubt, identification can be requested. If you do not have this with you, access will be denied.
- Visitors who are visibly under the influence of alcohol or drugs will be refused entry.
- By entering Garage Noord you agree to be searched if asked. If you do not agree to this, access may be refused.
- Trade and possession of weapons or drugs is not allowed. If weapons or drugs are found, they will be confiscated and handed over to the police, for which reason the visitor is refused entry. We reserve the right to hand over the person in question to the police.
- It is forbidden to bring any kind of liquid into the club.
- Garage Noord likes to see its visitors in a unique style and finds it important that people feel free to wear what they want. However, a tailored suit, uniform or shirt is not part of our dress code and may be a reason to be refused entry.
- Large groups, bachelor parties and other groups that determine the atmosphere may be refused entry (maximum size of 4 people).
- During regular club nights, the door is closed after 4:00 for doorsale and presale tickets. Visitors who are on the guest list will be given the opportunity to enter.
- We prefer to see as few telephones on the dance floor as possible. If a photo is taken, then without flash.
- Garage Noord is not responsible for lost items in the club or lockers.
- The lighting plan in our club can be dangerous for people who have epilepsy or have had a stroke in the past. Garage Noord is in no way liable for any suffering and/or damage that may arise as a result.
- When you leave Garage Noord, think about the neighbors and leave as quietly as possible.
