H: 102 cm
W: 192 cm
D: 80 cm

Designed in 1950 for The Nordenfjeldske Kunstindustrimuseum in Trondheim, where Finn Juhl was asked to decorated a room with modern interior design.

The sofa has been produced in more lengths and is used in several of Finn Juhl's famous interior designs and it is with its asymmetric look, probably the best example of how he was inspired by the modern free art.

The Wall sofa is delivered with hand sewn upholstery in wool of customer's choice. The hanging frame is made of lacquered steel and is mounted to a wall.
