Key - C

Mystery

Words and Music by Thomas Miller and George Thomas

```
Verse 1
God E - ternal here to - day
                                G
       Dm
                      Gsus
Moving in unchanging ways
        Em
Far be - yound the highest high
 Dm
                     Gsus
                              G
                                                Dm
                                                      Am/C
                                                              G
Closer than can be defined You're a myster-y
Verse 2
Common human clothed in splendor
                                         G
            Dm
Unending strength yet heart so tender
        Em
Born to die to free this slave
                                G
The beauty of amazing grace
                                is a myster-y
     Chorus
       C/E
                            G
                                  Csus
                                          C
     I see You move in unseen ways
                      G
                                Csus
     Hear Your voice in the qui-et place
       G/B
                          G
                                                     C/E
     I feel
             Your peace steal my breath away
                                    G
             Dm
                           Gsus
     You're simply a myster - y
Verse 3
                     Fmai7
So un - lovely still You love me
                          Gsus
                                       G
Needing You yet You pur - sue me
 G/F
       Em
Loving me since time began
                                     G
      Dm
                            Gsus
Such love I'll never compre - hend
```

Ending

Dm Gsu
To me the greatest myster-y G Gsus

G F Dm

Fmaj7 Is You in love with me

Am/C Ooh G С