We're passionate about travel and as a 100% Irish owned, award winning company, we are fully bonded for your protection, so you can look forward to the holiday of a lifetime knowing that you are in safe hands. Here are some of the key resorts to consider when planning your holiday in Thailand.

BANGKOK

The capital of Thailand, Bangkok is without doubt one of Asia's most colourful cities boasting an irresistible contrast of sacred temples, neon lights, bars, restaurants and some of the best shopping malls in the world. During your visit you could explore rural Bangkok by boat along the massive Chao Praya River and savour the culture of the city and its unique floating markets.

CHIANG MAI

Chiang Mai is a large and beautiful city in the north of the country, an hour by plane from the capital. Nestled in a valley with dramatic mountains as a backdrop, it is a charming city with world-class restaurants and little street stalls serving delicious food, temples, art galleries, cafés and shopping malls.

PHUKET

This is possibly the best known Thai destination in Ireland and it's easy to see why. Boasting miles of white sandy beaches, watersports galore, restaurants in abundance, cafes, bars & nightclubs, this is the go to Island in the Andaman.

KRABI

A province on southern Thailand's Andaman Coast, Krabi is a region of labyrinthine archipelagos where islands seem to erupt vertically out of the sea and where secluded beaches are accessible only by colourfully adorned long tail boats.

KOH PHI PHI

Koh Phi Phi is the collective name for a cluster of six islands 45 minutes from Phuket. This is home to towering limestone cliffs sheltering white sandy beaches and aquamarine bays filled with exotic marine life.

KOH SAMUI & KOH PHANGAN

The paradise island of Koh Samui is a beautiful blend of tropical forests, exotic wildlife and long stretches of white, sandy beaches with crystal clear waters. It is a haven for sun worshippers, divers and watersports enthusiasts and, for those who like nightlife, the monthly Full Moon Party in nearby Koh Phangan is unmissable.

HUA HIN & CHA AM

One of the country's premier beach resort towns on the Gulf of Thailand, Hua Hin is a popular resort with visitors from across the globe from couples and families alike. It is also the location of the King of Thailand's summer palace. The Resort boasts a beautiful 5km sandy beach, numerous seaside restaurants, a lively night market and some great inland activities, not least of which is golfing at some of Thailand's most renowned courses. A quieter alternative to Hua Hin is nearby Cha Am, where accommodation options range from luxurious resorts to small boutique beach hotels.

BANGKOK & CHIANG MAI

BANGKOK

The capital of Thailand, Bangkok is a hot, bustling city with everything going on. Rooftop bars overlooking busy streets sit happily next to sacred Buddhist temples that emanate calm, tranquillity and peace. Built upon water, the city once known as the 'Venice of the East' is now a bewitching place with an historic old town, gleaming modern shopping malls and lively nightlife.

CHIANG MAI

Bangkok's 'smaller, calmer little sister,' Chiang Mai in northern Thailand manages to combine its Buddhist traditions with a vibrant modern culture. It's an hour's domestic flight from the capital, and you don't have to venture far from the city to get far from civilisation. Visitors flock to the region for its authentic cultural experiences, wellness retreats and long-held traditions of arts and crafts.

BEST TIME TO VISIT

The dry season (Nov-Feb) is the best time for walking around Bangkok & Chiang Mai - it's a little bit cooler in Chiang Mai - and during the hot season (March-June) it can be quite warm and a little uncomfortable. The rainy season (July-October) is not as wet as you might expect. Rain is normally limited to short bursts and in Bangkok it can come as a welcome relief. In Chiang Mai, the rainy season is one of the favourite times of year, as showers keep the temperatures down, the countryside is green and lush and there are far fewer people around.

TOP THINGS TO DO

THE OLD TOWN

Immerse yourself in Thai history with a tour of Bangkok's old town which sparkles with must-see temples (wats) including Wat Pho with its reclining gold Buddha and the Royal Grand Palace with its rich architecture, ancient holy buildings and the Emerald Buddha, carved from a single piece of jade and the most revered object in Thailand.

NEW BANGKOK

The BTS Skytrain makes exploring Bangkok fast and easy - and it affords some fantastic city views. Head to Siam Square, the main shopping area, check out the colossal Central World shopping mall, visit the Museum of Counterfeit Goods (must be booked 24 hours in advance) and get an insight into Thai arts at the Bangkok Art and Cultural Centre.

RIVER KWAI & TIGER TEMPLE

Visit the forest temple of Wat Pa Luang Ta Bua Here, where Buddhist monks live in harmony with wild animals. History and movie buffs will love to see the Bridge on the River Kwai, made famous by the eponymous film, and the War Museum.

FLOATING MARKETS

Soak up Thai culture at Bangkok's Floating Markets, where an array of produce is sold from traditional canoes. The busiest is Damnoen Saduak in Ratchaburi Province, but there are many others well worth a visit.

CHIANG MAI NIGHT BAZAAR

Locals and tourists alike spill out on to the streets of Chiang Mai to enjoy its busy night bazaar, one of the city's main attractions and a mecca for designer goods, clothing, jewellery, DVD's and CD's at bargain prices.

PHUKET

Andaman Coast

Known as the 'Pearl of the Andaman,' Phuket is the largest of the islands off Thailand's southern coastline and a great base from which to explore the other islands nearby. It's extremely popular with tourists thanks to its beautiful sandy beaches, beach huts, cafés, restaurants and some of the best diving and snorkelling in the world. If you feel like a change from lying on a sun-drenched beach, there are plenty of diversions both on the coast and inland. Head to the Khoa Sok National Park for an unforgettable jungle experience, complete with elephants and lazy rivers.

BEST TIME TO VISIT PHUKET, KRABI & PHI PHI

The Andaman coastline has a tropical climate, which means it's warm all year round, but the periods of April-May and September-October are the hottest. The periods between November-March and June-August are generally considered the best times to visit. However, while the heavier rains in September-October can be a little disruptive, this part of Thailand enjoys a temperate zone and rarely has several consecutive days of heavy rain.

You won't have to travel far to enjoy some truly relaxing treatments as most hotels and resorts offer state-of-the-art natural healing and spa facilities and holistic therapies.

FESTIVAL FEVER

You may like to time your trip to coincide with some of the island's many festivals, including Loy Krathong (Festival of Lights) in November, with its floating 'leaf-boats' sent bobbing out to sea, gently flickering as they go, or the colourful nine-day Vegetarian Festival in late September/early October.
