Article 10: Number of Arbitrators

The Tribunal shall consist of three arbitrators, unless the parties agree otherwise.

Article 11: Appointment of Sole Arbitrator

1. If a sole arbitrator is to be appointed, the parties, including any multiple Claimants and multiple Respondents, shall jointly appoint the sole arbitrator within 30 days from the date when the Respondent receives the Notice of Arbitration, and they shall provide written evidence of their agreement on such appointment to CAAI, unless the parties agree otherwise.
2. If the parties do not appoint the sole arbitrator within the required time limit, CAAI shall appoint the sole arbitrator.

Article 12: Appointment of Three Arbitrators

1. If three arbitrators are to be appointed, each party shall appoint one arbitrator.

If a party does not notify the other party of its appointed arbitrator within 30 days after receiving the other party's notification of arbitrator appointment, that other party may request CAAI to appoint the second arbitrator.

2. The two appointed arbitrators shall choose a third arbitrator to act as the presiding arbitrator.

Failing such appointment within 30 days from the second arbitrator's appointment, CAAI shall appoint the third and presiding arbitrator.

3. If there are more than two parties to the arbitration, any multiple Claimants shall jointly appoint one arbitrator and any multiple Respondents shall jointly appoint the other arbitrator within the time limit required by CAAI, unless the parties agree otherwise.

Failing such appointments, CAAI shall appoint all three arbitrators and designate one of them as the presiding arbitrator.

All appointments of any arbitrator, whether made by the parties or the arbitrators, are subject to confirmation by CAAI, upon which the appointments shall become effective.

Article 14: Qualifications of Arbitrators and Disclosure

1. Any arbitrator shall be impartial and independent at all times, and shall not act as advocate for any party.
2. Before confirmation of appointment, a prospective arbitrator shall disclose in writing to all parties and CAAI any circumstances that may give rise to justifiable doubts as to his or her impartiality or independence.

Upon confirmation of appointment and throughout the arbitration, an arbitrator shall promptly disclose in writing to all parties and CAAI any such circumstances, unless he or she has already informed them of such circumstances.

3. A party who does not challenge the arbitrator in accordance with Article 16 within 30 days after receiving the arbitrator's disclosure is deemed to have waived any potential challenge based on such disclosure.

Article 15: Ex parte Communication

 - (a) advise the prospective arbitrator of the general nature of the dispute and the anticipated proceedings;
 - (b) discuss the prospective arbitrator's qualifications, availability, impartiality and independence in relation to the parties; and
 - (c) discuss the suitability of the prospective presiding arbitrator where the parties or party-appointed arbitrators will participate in that arbitrator's appointment.
2. All parties and their representatives shall not have any ex parte communication relating to the arbitration with any prospective presiding arbitrator.

Article 16: Challenge of Arbitrators

1. Any arbitrator may be challenged if:
 - (a) circumstances exist that give rise to justifiable doubts as to the arbitrator's impartiality or independence;
 - (b) the arbitrator does not possess any requisite qualifications as agreed by the parties; or
 - (c) the arbitrator becomes de jure or de facto unable to perform his or her functions, or for other reasons fails or refuses to act without undue delay.

A party may challenge the arbitrator appointed by it only for reasons of which he or she becomes aware after such arbitrator has been appointed.

2. A party who intends to challenge an arbitrator shall, within 30 days after being notified of that arbitrator's appointment or becoming aware of the circumstances giving rise to a challenge, submit a Notice of Challenge to CAAI with a copy to all other parties, the challenged arbitrator and any other arbitrator.

The Notice of Challenge shall be in writing and shall state the reasons for the challenge.

3. After receiving the Notice of Challenge, the challenged arbitrator may resign or withdraw, or the other parties may agree to the challenge. No acceptance of the validity of any grounds for the challenge shall be implied in either case.

In both cases, a substitute arbitrator shall be appointed pursuant to the procedures applicable to the challenged arbitrator's appointment. The time limit for the substitute arbitrator's appointment shall commence on the date when CAAI receives the parties' agreement to the challenge or the challenged arbitrator's resignation or withdrawal.

4. If the other parties do not agree to the challenge or the challenged arbitrator does not resign or withdraw within 15 days of receiving the Notice of Challenge, CAAI shall decide on the challenge.

Pending CAAI's decision on the challenge, the Tribunal, including the challenged arbitrator, may continue the arbitration, unless CAAI orders a suspension of the arbitration.

5. If CAAI sustains the challenge, a substitute arbitrator shall be appointed pursuant to the procedures applicable to the challenged arbitrator's appointment.
The time limit for the substitute arbitrator's appointment shall commence on the date when CAAI notifies the parties of its decision on the challenge.
6. If CAAI rejects the challenge, any suspension of the arbitration ordered by CAAI shall cease and the Tribunal shall proceed with the arbitration.
7. The party submitting a Notice of Challenge shall pay a challenge fee of USD 6,000.00 to CAAI for each of CAAI's decision on the challenge made.

Article 17: Replacement of Arbitrators

1. In the event of an arbitrator's death, resignation, withdrawal or removal during the arbitration, a substitute arbitrator shall be appointed pursuant to the procedures applicable to the appointment of the arbitrator being replaced.
2. If an arbitrator is replaced, the arbitration shall resume at the stage where the arbitrator was replaced or ceased to perform his or her functions, unless the Tribunal decides otherwise after consulting with the parties.

Article 18: Jurisdiction of Tribunal

1. Before the Tribunal is constituted, if a party objects to the existence, validity, effectiveness, scope or termination of an arbitration agreement or to CAAI's competence to administer the arbitration, CAAI may decide whether and to what extent the arbitration can proceed, and such decision is without prejudice to the admissibility or merits of any party's objection.

The arbitration shall proceed if and to the extent that CAAI is prima facie satisfied that an arbitration agreement may exist under the Rules.

2. After the Tribunal is constituted, the Tribunal may rule on its own jurisdiction, including but not limited to, counterclaim, set-off defence, any objections to the existence, validity, effectiveness, scope or termination of an arbitration agreement.
3. The Tribunal may determine the existence or validity of the contract of which an arbitration clause forms a part.

For the purposes of this Article, an arbitration clause that forms part of a contract shall be treated as an agreement independent of the other terms of the contract.

The Tribunal's decision that the contract is null and void shall not necessarily entail the invalidity of the arbitration clause.

4. Any objection to the Tribunal's jurisdiction shall be raised before or in the Statement of Defence or Reply to Counterclaim, unless the Tribunal considers the delay justified in the circumstances.
The fact that a party has appointed, or participated in the appointment of, an arbitrator, does not preclude that party from raising such an objection.
5. The Tribunal may decide an objection concerning its jurisdiction either as a preliminary question or in an award on the merits.
6. Pending any challenge to its jurisdiction before a court or other competent authority, the Tribunal may continue the arbitration.

Article 19: Seat of Arbitration

1. The parties may agree on the Seat of Arbitration.
Absent such an agreement, the Seat of Arbitration shall be Hong Kong, unless the Tribunal determines that another seat is more appropriate in the circumstances after consulting with the parties.

3. Any award shall be deemed to have been made at the Seat of Arbitration.

Article 20: Language of Arbitration

1. The parties may agree on the language of the arbitration.
Absent such an agreement, the language of the arbitration shall be either Mandarin Chinese or English in accordance with CAAI's notification of preliminary decision on language under Article 7.2, unless the Tribunal determines that another language(s) is more appropriate in the circumstances after consulting with the parties.
2. The language of the arbitration shall apply to any written submissions, including Statement of Claim, Statement of Defence, any amendment and supplement, and any hearings, as well as to any awards, decisions or other written communications made by the Tribunal.
3. For any submissions or documents using a language different from the language of the arbitration, the Tribunal, or CAAI if before the Tribunal's constitution, may require translation in a form to be determined by the Tribunal or CAAI.

Article 21: Statement of Claim

1. Unless contained in its Notice of Arbitration, the Claimant shall submit a Statement of Claim to the Tribunal and all other parties within the time limit to be determined by the Tribunal.

Article 22: Statement of Defence

1. Unless contained in its Answer to Notice of Arbitration, the Respondent shall submit a Statement of Defence to the Tribunal and all other parties within the time limit to be determined by the Tribunal.

2. The Tribunal may require any further written submissions from the parties and shall determine the time limits for such submissions.

Article 24: Evidence and Hearings

1. The Tribunal has the power to determine the admissibility, relevance, materiality and weight of any evidence, including whether to apply strict rules of evidence. The Tribunal may admit or exclude any documents, exhibits or other evidence.

2. The Tribunal may allow or require any party to produce documents, exhibits or other evidence that the Tribunal determines to be relevant to the case and material to its outcome.

The Tribunal shall give all parties reasonable advance notice in writing of any hearing or meeting for the purposes of inspecting documents, goods, other property or evidence.

3. Unless the parties agree otherwise, the Tribunal shall decide whether to hold hearings for the presentation of evidence or oral argument, or whether the arbitration shall be conducted on the basis of documents and written submissions only.

The Tribunal may hold such hearings at appropriate stages of the arbitration upon any party's request or on its own initiative.

4. Any expert, whether appointed by the parties or the Tribunal, shall be a natural person or represented by natural person(s).
5. Witnesses and experts who are presented by the parties to testify to the Tribunal on any issues of fact or expertise may be any individual, even if that individual is a party to the arbitration or in any way related to a party.

If any witnesses or experts are to be heard, a party shall notify the Tribunal and all other parties the names and addresses of the witnesses or experts it intends to present, the subject upon and the language in which such witnesses or experts will give their testimony, within the time limit agreed by the parties or determined by the Tribunal.

6. The Tribunal may determine the order and manner in which witnesses or experts are questioned.
7. The Tribunal may require the retirement of any witness or expert who is not a party to the arbitration during the testimony of other witnesses or experts.
8. Hearings shall be held in private unless the parties agree otherwise.

Article 25: Tribunal's Appointment of Experts

1. Unless the parties agree otherwise, the Tribunal may:
 - (a) appoint one or more experts on specific issues; and
 - (b) require any party to produce or provide such experts with access to any relevant documents, goods or property for inspection.

The Tribunal shall establish terms of reference for the Tribunal-appointed expert, and shall provide a copy of such terms of reference to all parties and CAAI.

2. Any Tribunal-appointed expert shall submit to the Tribunal, all parties and CAAI a statement of his or her qualifications, impartiality and independence before accepting appointment.

The parties may object to the expert's qualifications, impartiality or independence within the time limit required by the Tribunal, and the Tribunal shall promptly decide whether to accept such objection.

After the expert's appointment, the parties may object to the expert's qualifications, impartiality or independence only for reasons of which they become aware after such appointment. The Tribunal shall promptly decide whether to accept such objection or take other actions.

3. The Tribunal-appointed expert shall submit a report in writing ("expert's report") to the Tribunal and all parties.

The Tribunal may invite the parties to submit written comments on such report.

4. After the Tribunal provides the expert's report to all parties, any Tribunal-appointed expert shall, at any party's request, attend a hearing at which the parties shall have the opportunity to question the expert, and the parties may present other experts to testify on the points at issue.

 - (a) maintain or restore the status quo pending determination of the dispute;
 - (b) take action that would prevent, or refrain from taking action that is likely to cause, current or imminent harm or prejudice to the arbitral process;
 - (c) provide means of preserving assets out of which a subsequent award may be satisfied; or

- (d) preserve evidence that may be relevant and material to the determination of the dispute.
4. When deciding a party's request for Interim Measures, the Tribunal shall consider the following:
 - (a) whether harm that is irreparable or cannot be adequately compensated is likely to result if the measure is not granted;
 - (b) whether such harm substantially outweighs the harm that is likely to result to the party affected by the measure if the measure is granted; and
 - (c) whether there is a reasonable possibility that the requesting party will succeed on the merits, provided that any determination on such possibility shall not affect the Tribunal's discretion in making any subsequent determination.
 5. The Tribunal may require the requesting party to provide appropriate security in connection with the measure.
 6. The Tribunal may require any party to promptly disclose any material change in the circumstances based on which the measure was requested or granted.
 7. The Tribunal may modify, suspend or terminate any measure it has granted upon any party's request, or on the Tribunal's own initiative with advance notice to the parties in exceptional circumstances.
 8. The requesting party may be liable for any costs or damages caused by the measure to any party if the Tribunal later determines that the measure should not have been granted in the circumstances then prevailing. The Tribunal may award such costs or damages at any time during the arbitration.
 9. A party may apply to a court or other competent authority for:
 - (a) relief similar to Emergency Measures before the Tribunal's constitution;
 - (b) relief similar to Interim Measures after the Tribunal's constitution in exceptional circumstances; or
 - (c) the implementation of any Emergency Measures granted by Emergency Arbitrator under Schedule 1 or any Interim Measures granted by the Tribunal under Article 26.

These applications shall not be deemed an infringement or a waiver of the arbitration agreement, and they shall not affect the relevant powers reserved to the Tribunal.

The party making any of these applications shall promptly notify all other parties, CAAI, the Tribunal or Emergency Arbitrator of such application in writing.

Article 27: Joinder of Additional Party

3. An existing party wishing to join an Additional Party, or a third party wishing to be joined as an Additional Party, may submit a Request for Joinder and pay a non-refundable fee of USD 2,500.00 to CAAI. The Request for Joinder shall include the following items:

 - (f) confirmation that copies of the Answer to Request for Joinder and any accompanying documents have been or are being served simultaneously on all other parties and the Tribunal by the means of service specified in such confirmation.

5. An existing party or third party who does not submit an Answer to Request for Joinder within 15 days of receiving the Request for Joinder is deemed to have waived its right to object to, or comment on, the Request for Joinder.
6. The Tribunal shall make a decision on joinder within 20 days of receiving any Answer to Request for Joinder or, in the absence of any Answer to Request for Joinder, within 30 days of receiving the Request for Joinder.
7. If CAAI receives a Request for Joinder before the Tribunal's constitution, CAAI may decide whether, prima facie, the Additional Party is bound by an arbitration agreement giving rise to the arbitration under the Rules, including any arbitrations consolidated under Article 28 or commenced under multiple contracts under Article 9.

The other existing party to the arbitration and/or third party may submit an Answer to Request for Joinder to CAAI in accordance with Article 27.4.

CAAI shall make a decision on joinder within 30 days of receiving the Request for Joinder, and such decision is without prejudice to the admissibility or merits of any party's objection.

9. If an Additional Party is to be joined to the arbitration, the arbitration in respect of the Additional Party is deemed to commence on the date when CAAI receives the Request for Joinder.
 - (a) If the Additional Party is joined to the arbitration before the Tribunal's constitution, all parties to the arbitration are deemed to have waived their right to appoint an arbitrator unless all parties agree on the arbitrators already appointed, and CAAI shall revoke the appointment of any arbitrator(s) appointed and appoint the arbitrator(s).
 - (b) If the Additional Party is joined to the arbitration after the Tribunal's constitution, the Tribunal shall continue the arbitration.
10. CAAI's revocation of an arbitrator's appointment under Article 27.9(a) is without prejudice to:

 - (e) whether the parties agree to the consolidation; and
 - (f) confirmation that copies of the Request for Consolidation and any accompanying documents have been or are being served simultaneously on all other parties and the Tribunal(s) by the means of service specified in such confirmation.

CAAI (including its committees, sub-committees, directors, officers, employees, members and other designated persons), any arbitrator, Emergency Arbitrator, Tribunal-appointed expert or Tribunal's secretary shall not be liable to any person for any act or omission in connection with any arbitration conducted under the Rules, except where such act or omission constitutes wilful misconduct.
2. After a final award is made and all possibilities of correction, interpretation and additional awards have lapsed or been exhausted, CAAI (including its committees, sub-committees, directors, officers, employees, members and other designated persons), any arbitrator, Emergency Arbitrator, Tribunal-appointed expert or Tribunal's secretary shall not be under any obligation to make any statement to any person about any matter concerning the arbitration.

- (e) The Tribunal shall make its final award within six weeks from the date of its closure of proceedings. CAAI may extend this time limit only once in exceptional circumstances; and
- (f) The Tribunal shall state the reasons upon which the award is based in summary form, unless the parties agree otherwise.

Article 42: Deposit for Costs

1. As soon as practicable after the Respondent receives the Notice of Arbitration, CAAI shall determine the amount of Deposit for Costs, which includes CAAI's administrative fees determined in accordance with Article 45 and other necessary expenses, as well as the Tribunal's fees and expenses.
The Tribunal, once constituted, shall confirm the amount of Deposit of Costs determined by CAAI.

4. During the arbitration, CAAI may request the parties to make supplementary deposits that it considers necessary.
The Tribunal may inform CAAI if further deposits are required, such as when additional hours have been incurred.
5. If the required deposits are not paid in full to CAAI within 30 days after the parties receive the request for payment, CAAI shall inform the parties and order one of them to make the required deposits.
If such payment is not made, CAAI or the Tribunal may order the suspension or termination of the arbitration, or continue the arbitration on such basis and in respect of such claim or counterclaim as CAAI or the Tribunal considers appropriate.
6. The Tribunal shall, in its final award, render an account to the parties of the deposits received by CAAI.
7. CAAI shall place the deposits made by the parties in interest bearing deposit account(s) at reputable licensed deposit-taking institutions.
In selecting the account(s), CAAI shall have due regard to the possible need to make the deposited funds available immediately.

9. The parties are jointly and severally liable for the Deposit for Costs.

Article 43: Costs of Arbitration

The Tribunal shall promptly inform CAAI of its determination for CAAI to make any refund or to request additional Deposit for Costs.

5. If arbitrations are consolidated under Article 28, the Tribunal in the consolidated arbitration shall allocate the Costs of Arbitration. Such costs shall include, but shall not be limited to, the fees of any arbitrators appointed, and any other costs incurred in an arbitration that was subsequently consolidated into another arbitration.
6. If the Tribunal issues a Termination Order under Article 36 or makes a consent award under Article 35, the Tribunal or CAAI shall determine the Costs of Arbitration in that order or award.
7. The Tribunal may award simple or compound interest on any sum which is the subject of the arbitration at such rates as the parties have agreed or, in the absence of such agreement, as the Tribunal determines to be appropriate, in respect of any period which the Tribunal determines to be appropriate.

Article 44: Tribunal's Fees and Expenses

1. The Tribunal's fees shall be determined pursuant to either Schedule 2 (Hourly Rate) or Schedule 3 (Amount in Dispute).

The parties shall agree on using either Schedule 2 or Schedule 3 for determining the Tribunal's fees, and shall inform CAAI of their agreement within 30 days after the Respondent receives the Notice of Arbitration.

Failing such an agreement, the Tribunal's fees shall be determined pursuant to Schedule 3 (Amount in Dispute).

2. If the Tribunal's fees are to be determined pursuant to Schedule 2 (Hourly Rate), the applicable hourly rate for each arbitrator shall be the rate as agreed between that arbitrator and the parties, which shall not exceed the maximum hourly rate of USD 800.00.

CAAI shall determine the presiding arbitrator's hourly rate.

If the parties and the arbitrator cannot agree on the hourly rate within 20 days after the arbitrator's appointment, CAAI shall determine the hourly rate, which shall not exceed the maximum hourly rate of USD 800.00.

 - (b) whether such harm substantially outweighs the harm that is likely to result to the party affected by the measure if the measure is granted; and
