RAGTIME is a sweeping musical adaptation of E.L. Doctorow's novel that follows three fictional families in pursuit of the American Dream at the dawn of the 20th Century: Black pianist Coalhouse Walker, Jr. and his beloved Sarah, Jewish immigrant Tateh and his little girl, and a wealthy white family led by matriarch Mother. All grasping for the same dream, if only they can hold on to it.

Dress Rehearsal: La Fille Du Regiment

The Metropolitan Opera House

Tuesday, October 14th at 10:30 am – 1:30 pm (Ages 15+)

The Metropolitan Opera

Opera Dress Rehearsal for Invited Audiences

A bel canto classic that guarantees astounding singing, Donizetti's ebullient comedy returns in Laurent Pelly's "totally delightful" (The New York Times) production, with soprano Erin Morley making her Met role debut as Marie, the intrepid "daughter of the regiment." She stars alongside high-flying tenor Lawrence Brownlee as her admirer, Tonio, with mezzo-soprano Alice Coote as Marie's long-lost mother, the Marquise of Berkenfield, and bass-baritone Peter Kálmán as the gruff but goodhearted Sgt. Sulpice.

Please Note: This is a full-length show with performance rules - it is not a Relaxed Performance. Seats for this performance may be on a high level of the opera house, Dress Circle or above.

Du Yun: The Ocean Etched in Forest

Alice Tully Hall

Friday, November 7th at 2:00 pm (Ages 5+)

Lincoln Center for Performing Arts

Relaxed Music Performance for General Audiences

Over the past several years, Du Yun and her collaborator Julian Crouch have worked closely with Jino artists, including He Guiying, the national inheritor of the intangible Jinuo cultural heritage. Through this initiative, He Guiying has been teaching Jino children to sing nearly forgotten local folk songs and recording their performances in Bapiao Village. The stage design incorporates local bamboo-weaving art and locally sourced materials.

Together with Du Yun's band OK MISS, this work will highlight the intersections of ancient tradition and modern culture, folk story and contemporary story-telling; professional and amateur practitioners; and generations living and gone. By making the work in tandem, the collaborators will all bring their own engagement with the past and vision for the future, across boundaries of time and geography.

Saturday, November 22nd at 11:00 am – 11:45 am (Ages 8+)

Lincoln Center for Performing Arts

Relaxed Theater Performance for General Audiences

Ulysses for children? Yes, Ulysses for children. James Joyce's epic story of one day in one city is brought to life in this inventive show by Branar, bringing Ireland's most notorious book to audiences aged 8 and upwards, and to all those who haven't got around to reading it yet. Combining live performance, intricate paper design, and an original score, this is theater that will excite both young and old.

This production is commissioned as part of Ulysses 2.2, a collaborative project between ANU, Landmark Productions and Museum of Literature, Ireland. Kindly supported by Culture Ireland.
