"This work is dedicated to the memory of two men whom I admire: John Wesley Carlos, former track and field medal winner at the 1968 Summer Olympics, well known for his triumphant salute upon the winners podium that year, and Dance Theatre of Harlem's Founder and Artistic Director Emeritus, Mr. Arthur Mitchell (1924-2018), whose similar stand for his people, his community, and the arts 'has brought us thus far on our way' (from Lift Every Voice and Sing)"-Robert Garland

This ballet was commissioned with generous funding from Seattle Theatre Group for the Dance Theatre of Harlem's 50th Anniversary season.
