Message

From the Chair and President

The 2011-12 season was a pivotal year in our history. For some time we have been looking at various options for revitalizing historic Massey Hall. We recently received an offer of the donation of land to the immediate south of the venue permitting us to fully explore an extended and renovated concert venue. Massey Hall is a unique Canadian institution. It is the only continuously operating concert hall of this vintage in Canada and one of only a handful in North America. For over 118 years, Massey Hall has touched the lives of generations of Canadians and created enduring memories. This once-in-a-lifetime development opportunity is allowing us to reflect on our mission and how we envision Massey Hall for the 21st century. The development will be informed by our artistic and educational objectives and listening to you, our patrons.

Creating community connections in our venues and through our arts programming is central to our mission. In 2011-12 we staged 415 shows at four different venues: Roy Thomson Hall, Massey Hall, Glenn Gould Studio and Winter Garden Theatre. There were numerous concert highlights: Mariinsky Orchestra, Bobby McFerrin, Buddy Guy, Wynton Marsalis, Justin Bieber, Sting, the Glenn Gould Prize concert featuring Leonard Cohen and many more. Equally important, we supported emerging Canadian artists in our smaller venues and inspired close to 2,000 youth who attended Share the Music programs both in our venues and in their own schools.

Roy Thomson Hall continues to be the home of the TSO, our city's splendid orchestra, and one of the busiest concert venues in North America, hosting numerous corporate and community events. These ranged from Microsoft US, TD Bank, PricewaterhouseCoopers, Fairfax Financial Holdings to the Toronto Luxury Chocolate Show, Lieutenant Governor Diamond Jubilee Awards Celebration, and North Toronto Collegiate 100th Anniversary Concert. These events are very important to the success of the Corporation and are a showcase of distinction for our clients.

We are very proud of our fiscal year-end results which show a positive contribution to net assets of $270,630.

We thank our Governors, Volunteers and Staff for their tremendous efforts over the past year. We congratulate the TSO for an outstanding 90th birthday celebration. And we thank you, our patrons, for showing your faith in our programs, for attending our concerts and presentations, and for allowing them to enrich and enliven your lives.

Sincerely,

Richard J. Balfour

Share the Music

Share the Music, the Corporation's arts and education outreach program, provides free tickets to groups of young people (ages 8 to 18) from all backgrounds who might otherwise be unable to afford or attend such performances on their own. The program enhances and broadens the musical horizons of young people by exposing them to world-renowned performers and related educational activities. Since 1999, thousands of students have received tickets to selected concerts at Massey Hall and Roy Thomson Hall and participated in illuminating pre-concert sessions created by noted local musicians. Teachers and parents also attend, and refreshments are served, providing a multi-generational and social aspect to the occasions.

During the 2011-2012 season nearly 1,700 Share the Music guests enjoyed the following performances and pre-concert activities at Massey Hall or Roy Thomson Hall:

- The Honorable Al Gore, former U.S. Vice President presents: "Our Choice, A Plan to Solve the Climate Crisis" / Q & A with Al Gore in the Auditorium
- Compañía Flamenco José Porcel / Flamenco workshop with Esmeralda Enrique and members of her Spanish Dance Company
- Valery Gergiev conducts the Mariinsky Orchestra of St. Petersburg / Repertoire chat hosted by Rick Phillips
- Toronto Blues Society's 25th Annual Women's Blues Revue / Blues workshop led by ShoShona Kish and Raven Kanatakta, lead performers of Digging Roots
- Preservation Hall Jazz Band / New Orleans-style music workshop with the Heavyweights Brass Band
- Jazz at Lincoln Center Orchestra with Wynton Marsalis / Attendance at orchestra's sound check plus private Q & A with four members of the band / Pre-concert "Rhythm Counts" workshop with trombonist Ron Westray and saxophonist Mike Murley
- Guitarist Buddy Guy and Opening Act blues singer James Hunter / Blues workshop "from acoustic to electric" hosted by multi-instrumentalist Ken Whiteley and bassist Victor Bateman
- Bobby McFerrin Solo Concert / Pre-concert interactive workshop with a cappella jazz quartet Cadence
- Piano recital by Georgy Tchaidze, First Prize Winner of the 2009 Honens International Piano Competition with guest soprano Dina Kuznetsova / Musical repertoire chat hosted by pianist David Louie. (This event was held at Glenn Gould Studio.)

In-School Workshops: Share the Music went into the schools with "hands-on" workshops in the classroom. Hundreds of students from instrumental, vocal and dance classes who had attended Share the Music events at Massey Hall and Roy Thomson Hall were provided with related classroom workshops led by noted educator-performers. Sessions were held at three Toronto high schools and included the following:

- String clinic with violinist Peter Seminovs and cellist Igor Gefter, both members of the TSO
- Blues guitar workshops with guitarist-composer-teacher Jay Vazquez, director of The Homeless Band
- Gospel vocal workshop with Karen Burke, conductor of the Toronto Mass Choir
- Song-writing clinic with Katherine Wheatley, who assisted vocal students develop the lyrics and music for an original song which they performed at a school concert
- Jazz improvisation workshop for band students led by trumpeter Chase Sanborn
- Vocal jazz workshop with a cappella jazz quartet Cadence
- String clinic with composer-cellist-conductor Ronald Royer and violinist Sarah Shugarman.
