

REHEARSALS

Work sessions, Pre-dress rehearsals, Dress rehearsals

The Paris National Opera offers Arop members the privilege of observing the work of the artists and the genesis of a production at different times: work sessions, pre-dress rehearsal and dress rehearsal. The dress rehearsal is the last rehearsal before the first performance.

Enter the heart of the creation and discover the artists at work!

BOOKING PROCEDURE

Booking for rehearsals (work sessions, pre-dress rehearsals and dress rehearsals) are assigned by semester regarding annual quota seats related to your membership level.

ACCESS REQUIREMENTS:

- Absolute discretion so that the artists do not feel the presence of an audience.
- It is forbidden to leave the room during the rehearsal.
- No photography or filming and no applause.
- In case of delay, entry are allowed only during the break.

Any person who does not respect these rules may be refused access to the rehearsals.

The activities are scheduled but changes can be applied related to the evolution of the health situation. The vaccine pass is required to participate.

CANCELLATION POLICY:

Cancellation by the Paris National Opera

- These sessions may be interrupted or closed to the public at any time for technical or artistic reasons.
- If they are cancelled, the Arop cannot be held responsible for rescheduling your seat.

Cancellation on your part

- In case of withdrawal, please inform us as soon as possible so that members on a waiting list can benefit from the available seats.
- Any cancellation on your part for a rehearsal (work session, pre-dress rehearsals and dress rehearsals), less than 2 working days before the date of the event, will be deducted from the number of places assigned per season. Late cancellations are lost seats for members on the waiting list (we can't reschedule seats from late cancellations).
