

Denver

Are you looking for a community with a small town feel but all the necessities of Jewish life? Denver is for you.

With two Orthodox elementary schools, a Modern Orthodox high school, a yeshiva and a Bais Yaakov, your children will have amazing educational opportunities. There are several Orthodox shuls that create opportunities for meeting diverse needs as well as cohesiveness when joining together as one for communal programs and initiatives. There are Eruvin, Mikvaot, a Kollel, kosher restaurants- everything you would need!

There's a broad spectrum of homes from small condos at $350,000 up to large homes for 3 million and everything in between. Large rental communities are available as well starting at $1500/month. Commuting to downtown and popular business districts will take you just under 30 minutes in most cases.

Denver is situated along the foothills of the Rocky Mountains where you can reach adventure in just a short drive. Hiking, skiing, and many other activities all with 300 days of sunshine. Denver’s an optimal place to raise a family in a community with a warm and wholesome environment.
