Young Israel aish Las Vegas

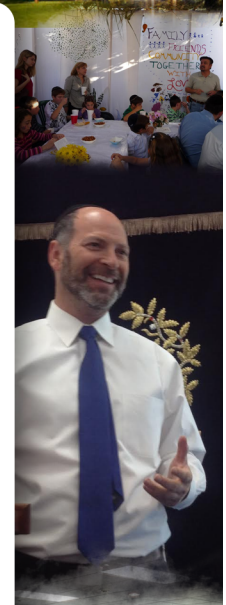

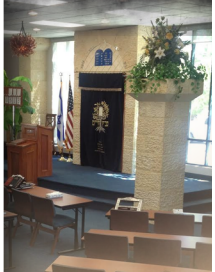

The Jewish community of Young Israel Aish Las Vegas is conveniently located where the upscale suburban communities of Summerlin, The Lakes, and Peccole Ranch converge. Unprecedented in most Western suburban areas, Young Israel is within walking distance of kosher groceries, shopping centers, two kosher restaurants, a multiplex movie theater complex, and numerous upscale condominiums and apartments. Just blocks from our Shul are affordable homes that front lakes, the desert foothills, and several miles of peaceful shaded walking trails.

The Young Israel Aish community is truly a spiritual oasis in the desert!

We are 15 minutes away from the magnificent Red Rock Canyon and Spring Mountain Ranch, where locals enjoy hiking, biking, and picnicking. Hoover Dam and Mt. Charleston are a short drive away. As most Las Vegans consider a 30-minute commute unreasonable, residents have more family time and less stress. The median price for a home in Las Vegas is $450K. There is no city or state income tax and the job market is strong, especially in the legal, health, and education professions.

The Las Vegas community boasts a full, Jewish infrastructure with 2 Day Schools, boys and girls high schools, 3 mikvaot, an eruv, 11 kosher restaurants, and plentiful kosher shopping.

Four rabbis serve the Young Israel Aish community, Rabbi Yitz Wyne, Rabbi Avi Anderson, Associate Rabbi, Rabbi Moshe Orlowek, Director of Israeli Outreach, and Rabbi Shuey Wyne, Assistant Rabbi. The shul hosts daily classes and a daily Ashkenazic & Sephardic minyan. The shul is also served by Yoetzet Halacha Stacey Goldman. Our classes, services, and programs engage an eclectic and multi-generational community.

Our thriving youth department builds a true love of synagogue attendance for young people from tots to teens.

The Young Israel Aish community is uniquely warm, close knit and welcoming. Please join us for a Shabbat and become part of our vibrant community--a spiritual oasis in the desert!
