THREE RABBI PANEL

WEDNESDAY, MARCH 30 AT 7:30PM
JEWISH SPIRITUALITY: WHAT DOES JUDAISM BELIEVE ABOUT THE BIG QUESTIONS?
LOCATION TO BE ANNOUNCED

Since the Middle Ages, Jews have argued about big theological questions to which its foundational texts provided no clear answers. This includes questions like what is the nature of God and his providence? What is the nature of the soul? What is the difference between Jews and non-Jews? Why must Jews observe Jewish ritual and with what intention? What exactly is the Torah? Today's denominations continue this healthy and vital debate. This semester Rabbi Greg Kanter (Reform), Rabbi Evan Ravski (Conservative), and Rabbi Sholom Mimran (Orthodox) will explore the big questions and how they see their respective movements answering them.

RABBI DR. ZVI GRUMET

ME'ARAT HAMACHPELAH, BURIAL AND BEYOND: THE CONTINUATION OF ABRAHAM'S LEGACY

Rabbi Dr. Zvi Grumet is a Bible teacher, creative educational thinker, and innovative scholar whose teaching has inspired students and communities throughout the English-speaking world for more than three decades. He engages his listeners in a close reading of the Biblical text, bringing its characters alive and bringing out the compelling nature of the Biblical message. Having earned his rabbinic ordination and Ed.D. at Yeshiva University, Rabbi Grumet dedicated the first eighteen years of his career to teaching Torah and leading educational institutions in the US. Today, he teaches at Yeshivat Eretz Hatzvi and the Pardes Institute. He is also a senior staff member at The Lookstein Center for Jewish Education, where he is editor of Jewish Educational Leadership and generates initiatives to help advance Jewish education on four continents.
