

Festo IO-Link portfolio

IO-Link is a protocol for gathering feedback from sensors and controlling various components. The data that has been gathered is used for preventive maintenance, AI applications and saving energy. That's why the latest products in our portfolio are suitable for use with IO-Link. Below is an overview of them.

