

PS Murray Princess

Murray River Cruising, South Australia

Cruises and Holiday Packages 2016/17

Relax, Discover, Enjoy.

Pulling away from Mannum you can feel the stresses of everyday life simply wash away. Cities and traffic give way to the soothing calmness of the river as it flows gently towards the sea.

Like a wildlife refuge, there are birds of all shapes and sizes. Pelicans glide effortlessly across the water, while spoonbills peer down from the treetops, and parrots chatter excitedly as they skip from branch to branch.

A cruise along the Murray recalls a distant age of riverboat trade, when goods and passengers moved between busy ports. Step further back in time on a guided nature walk, exploring ancient forests and wetlands where Aboriginal people once dined on shellfish and carved canoes from the eucalypts.

The view from the sundeck is magnificent, particularly in the late afternoon when the setting sun turns the towering cliffs a fiery orange. With a coffee, cool drink or glass of the local drop in hand, gaze out across billabongs, woodlands and pastures.

Each night a different part of the river becomes home, as the Murray Princess finds quiet moorage in plenty of time for dinner, an evening chat with your fellow passengers and a peaceful night's sleep.

There's no better way to experience the tranquillity and timelessness of Australia's mightiest river than aboard the paddlewheeler, PS Murray Princess.
