Passport to Travel Show Connects Military With the Region's Visitor Experiences

Feb. 13, 2012—Tacoma, Wash.—The Tacoma Regional Convention + Visitor Bureau [TRCVB] partners with Joint Base Lewis-McChord's [JBLM] Leisure Travel Services to promote the 2012 Passport to Travel Show on Wednesday, March 7.

The Passport to Travel Show is from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. at JBLM in the Army Family Covenant Arena.

This free event is open to military patrons only and is a great opportunity for military families, active duty or retired soldiers, Department of Defense civilians, reservists and base contractors to:

- Get visitor information
- Receive exclusive military discounts
- Talk to vacation planning experts
- Learn more about local hotels and attractions

Stop by the TRCVB's booth for free Tacoma + Pierce County Visitor Guides, area information, prizes and special deals for military. Also, learn more about Comfort Inn Tacoma, Foss Waterway Seaport, Hampton Inn + Suites Tacoma, Lakewold Gardens, Old Spaghetti Factory and the City of Sumner.

For more information about the Passport to Travel Show call [253] 967-3085.
