Grand Rapids, MI

“I moved to Grand Rapids, Michigan, nine months ago from Los Angeles, and before that New York City. Although I had been in very large cities before and explored their bizarre beer scenes, I came back to Grand Rapids very specifically to get involved in the craft beer scene. Grand Rapids is a novice beer city in many respects, but the community is fiercely loyal to its local breweries and extraordinarily excited to play a major role in the constantly evolving world of craft beer. Grand Rapids seems to have an attitude of, 'We have a vibrant scene here and plenty of beer to go around. Why should we look elsewhere? Support Michigan and support local!'” —Angela Steil, certified cicerone
