Meet College Park Announces 2015 College Park Restaurant Week

Second annual culinary event to take place March 14 – 22, 2015

ATLANTA (December 15, 2014) – Meet College Park (Meet CPGA) is inviting diners to save the date for the second annual College Park Restaurant Week (CPRW), taking place Saturday, March 14, through Sunday, March 22, 2015. Throughout this nine-day culinary event, the community will have an exclusive opportunity to immerse themselves in College Park’s unique culinary community at exceptional prices.

College Park Restaurant Week will include lunch and dinner menus offered at $9, $19 and/or $29 prix-fixe pricing tiers. Participating restaurants may offer more than one prix-fixe menu during any lunch or dinner seating, providing an unprecedented opportunity for community businesspeople and locals alike to experience College Park’s casual and more formal dining destinations. Prices are per person and exclude alcohol, tax and gratuity.

Meet College Park is excited to kick off the second annual College Park Restaurant Week to the city, and is invested in showcasing the city of College Park, Georgia, as a place to work, dine and live. Meet CPGA is the city of College Park’s destination marketing organization, working to generate and stimulate economic development and impact for the city. By effectively marketing facilities of the community as a preferred lifestyle, tourism, convention and business destination, the organization promotes and enhances the quality of life within the community, driving economic activity.

“It is very exciting to see College Park Restaurant Week become a culinary tradition for our charming community with a second annual event,” says Andria (A.T.) Towne, vice president of marketing for Meet College Park. “We are thrilled to see diners experience the historical downtown cityscape while enjoying the diverse roster of restaurants that encompass the city of College Park.”

Home to the world’s busiest airport, Georgia’s second largest convention facility the Georgia International Convention Center and headquarters for major organizations such as Chick-fil-A, Sysco and Woodward Academy, College Park has a small town atmosphere within one of the fastest growing metropolitan areas in the country. By presenting this community-wide event to the city, Meet CPGA provides visitors, businesses and meeting planners with a glimpse into the many unique amenities and conveniences that make up College Park, Georgia.
