Greater Lansing CVB Hires New Vice President of Finance & Administration

LANSING, Mich. – The Greater Lansing Convention and Visitors Bureau (GLCVB), is pleased to announce the hiring of Erik Decker as Vice President of Finance and Administration.

Erik comes to the GLCVB from Capitol National Bank, where he spent two years as Controller. Previous to that Erik was with Capitol Bancorp in Lansing for over 13 years, holding various finance and accounting roles.

Erik is a graduate from Olivet College with a degree in Business/Accounting and also holds an MBA from the University of Phoenix.

“A strong organization is built on the skills of its staff and we are very fortunate to have Erik Decker join our team,” said Jack Schripsema, President and CEO of the GLCVB. “The finance and administration role is critical and I have full confidence that Erik will be a key part of our success moving forward.”
