

Sundance Mountain Resort's Kids Camp is Back!

Join us for a summer of learning and fun June 2-August 8th, 2014

The Sundance Mountain Resort is proud to bring Kids Camp back to Sundance! For many years Sundance Kids Camp was a summer tradition. Then it was temporarily discontinued as a new vision and mission for Kids Camp was developed. As a result the new Kids Camp is committed to creating a valuable learning experience for children, while offering invigorating and inspiring adventures, exploration and games that provide new insights into nature, art, and culture.

Kids Camp returns to Sundance Mountain Resort June 2-August 8th, 2014 for children ages 5- 12 years old. This active nature day camp held Monday through Friday from 9 am to 5 pm at the Sundance Resort will feature unique activities that encompass artistic expression, active play, environmental education, science exploration, journaling, and plenty of games and fun!

"Much thought and planning has gone into the new Sundance Kids Camp. The mission of Kids Camp is to inspire, educate and create. We want kids to have a great time, while learning and exploring art and nature in the beautiful setting of Sundance Resort," commented Chad Linebaugh, Sundance General Manager.

Sundance Resort offers the perfect place to explore nature, enjoy physical activities such as hiking, games, scavenger hunts and relays, as well as learn more about nature and try their hand at with different forms of art. Camp leaders are highly trained and strive to support the physical, emotional, social and cognitive needs of each child. Cost of the camp is $49 for a single day, and $44 each additional sibling. For five days the cost is $210, and $175 for each additional sibling. Children will enjoy an active day on the mountain filled with adventure, games and learning.

"We are very excited to share the tradition of Sundance Kids Camp with a new generation of children. Our Campers will be engaged in learning while having fun by exploring creative arts, energizing with active play and investigating the wonders of science and the natural environment. Exciting weekly themes will inspire our daily adventures in this beautiful and unique mountain environment," commented Lindsay Butrum, Kids Camp Director.

2014 Sundance Kids Camp Schedule and Themes:

June 2-6 Animal Adventures

Explore many native animal species, make casts of tracks, examine insects and use animals as a source of inspiration for art. Children will also interact with rescued wildlife and learn about how humans and other animals are connected.

June 9-13 Fit & Fun

Campers will have fun doing healthy outdoor activities like yoga, hiking, biking, relays, martial arts and obstacle courses.

June 16-20 Art in Nature

Explore the forests, streams, meadows, mountains, Native American traditions and wildlife for artistic inspiration. Children will also explore culinary, dance, music and theatrical arts.

June 23-27 Science in Nature

Campers will explore natural science in plant and animal life, weather, geology and their own bodies by engaging in fun and interesting experiments.

June 30-July 3 Camp Out!

Campers will practice basic outdoor camping skills, learn about Leave No Trace, explore local plant and animal species, and create fun activities to use on their next family camping trip!

July 7-11 Water World

Learn about water eco-systems, including the streams, ponds and riparian zones of Sundance and cool off with water obstacle courses and games.

July 14-18 Eco Rangers

Enjoy learning about helping local, regional and global eco-community by participating in recycling, plantings and other projects. Also play games, create art, enjoy music and have fun!
