Three Big Museum Exhibit Openings May Save You Money

The last weekend of January is busy at three of Amarillo's museums. Each one has a major exhibit opening.

The Panhandle-Plains Historical Museum starts three exhibits under the theme The Great War. The American Quarter Horse Hall of Fame & Museum opens Nacidos Charros; Born Charro. The Don Harrington Discovery Center unveils a trio of spring exhibits- Little Builders, Brain Teasers 2 and Strange Matter.

Take advantage of these unique simultaneous openings by visiting all three and you will save a little on the admission.

Pay full admission price at the first museum you visit. Keep your receipt. Show your receipt when you visit the other two museums and get $1 off each admission at each museum. This is good for adult, senior and student admissions. It is good for a single visitor or a family of 10. But it is only good until Sunday, February 5. And it does not apply to the Friday opening receptions held on January 27 at each museum.

No coupons or other offers may be redeemed as part of this promotion. It just takes a receipt.

"Amarillo has some outstanding museums and winter is the perfect time to head indoors to see these attractions. The fact that each participating museum is also launching a new exhibit makes this offer even better,” Dan Quandt, VP of the Amarillo Convention & Visitor Council, says.

Again, it applies to only the Panhandle-Plains Historical Museum, American Quarter Horse Hall of Fame & Museum and the Don Harrington Discovery Center from January 28 (opening day for the public) through Sunday, February 5.

The Panhandle-Plains Historical Museum is open Tuesday-Saturday from 9 am to 5 pm.

The American Quarter Horse Hall of Fame & Museum is open Monday-Saturday from 9 am to 5 pm.

The Don Harrington Discovery Center is open Tuesday-Saturday from 9:30 am to 4:30 pm and on Sunday from 12-4 pm.
