Rock Climbing or Rumbling Bald Bouldering, Fox Mountain Guides Rock Climbing

Located in Chimney Rock at Chimney Rock State Park
www.ChimneyRockPark.com

The entrance is located in the center of Chimney Rock Village; drive up 3 miles to the ticket plaza and give the attendant your name for admission.

With Chimney Rock at Chimney Rock State Park's exclusive rock climbing partners, Fox Mountain Guides, you can schedule a climb in Chimney Rock that is suited to your abilities and see the Park from a whole new perspective. Whether you go solo, with your family and friends or with an entire group, you're sure to enjoy rock climbing on our mountain! For more info, email info@foxmountainguides.com directly or call 888-284-8433.

Bouldering at Rumbling Bald has seen a huge increase over the past few years. Rumbling Bald offers classic lines of all grades and world-class bouldering making it a mandatory part of the climbing circuit in the South. From long slab routes to overhung roof cracks, Rumbling Bald has something for everyone. With the new climber's parking lot in place, traffic to the Bald has exploded in recent years. AFTERNOON

Hiking through Chimney Rock at Chimney Rock State Park The entrance to Chimney Rock

Park is located in the center of Chimney Rock Village; drive up 3 miles to the ticket plaza and give the attendant your name for admission. www.ChimneyRockPark.com

Marvel at spectacular 75-mile views of Lake Lure and the Blue Ridge Foothills. The Park's ancient geological features, four scenic hiking trails, rock climbing and stunning views attract visitors from around the world. Catch your breath at Devil's Head and the Opera Box on a hike to the highest point, Exclamation Point at 2,480 feet, for panoramic views of the 14-mile gorge. Visitors can take the elevator or climb the 425 recently renovated steps to the top of the Chimney for rewarding picturesque views. For more than 100 years, Chimney Rock has been recognized as one of the most iconic and popular outdoor destinations in the Southeast.

In addition, kids of all ages will enjoy a guided tour with Grady the Groundhog, the Park's animal ambassador. Follow Grady on the Great Woodland Adventure Trail and try to jump as far as a spider, spot the salamanders or name the birds of prey soaring above. Then, head over to Grady's Animal Discovery Den to see the live animal habitats of snakes, turtles and opossum, and indulge in the hands-on displays of wildlife furs, skins, shells and skeletons.

Ziplining with Canopy Ridge Farm Ziplining

7115 US Hwy 64/74A, Lake Lure, N.C. 28746
www.CanopyRidgeFarm.com or 828-625-4500

Canopy Ridge Farm features a six-line, eco-adventure course. Launched in June 2011, the 40-acre park's ridge-to-ridge ziplines range in length from 500 ft. to 1,000 ft. with the longest and fastest line appropriately named, "Zip Zilla." Open from Apr. 15 – Nov. 15, Canopy Ridge Farm makes ziplining a nearly all-year-round adventure. Located in one of North Carolina's Thermal Belt regions, the pleasant weather conditions of Lake Lure combined with the plethora of natural vegetation and sky-scraping tree lines almost mimic the feeling of sailing through a rain forest.
