

What's New and Upcoming in Sandy Springs

Sandy Springs, Ga. (November 16, 2016) – A continuously growing hub for dining, entertainment and outdoor activities just north of Atlanta, Sandy Springs is celebrating even more new business openings, renovations and rebranding, along with holiday offerings and specials.

Here's what's new and upcoming in Sandy Springs for the holiday season and beyond:

- CalyRoad Creamery Expands and is Now on Delta Flights

Beginning the last week in November, Calyroad Creamery's Bit O' Blue cheese will be served on Delta's European First Class Menus for the next 12-week cycle. Calyroad cheeses will also be available through Amazon Fresh, which launches in Atlanta this month.

In addition, Calyroad Creamery is pleased to announce the opening of its new store expansion and tasting room in early December, where visitors can experience cheese tastings (made on-site) and tour the new facility with a 300-gallon cheese vat and mozzarella stretching machine.

- New and Rebranded

- Southern Bistro – Rebranded from the original Nancy G's Café, Southern Bistro's Chef Ron Eyester has created a new menu featuring low-country inspired cuisine
