Vancouver, Wash. to Host Two Summer Events Featuring Rare Collections of Antique Cars and Airplanes

Prestigious Concours d'Elegance to be held in Vancouver for first time

What:

Vancouver, Wash., located in the southwestern corner of the state and just minutes from downtown Portland, Ore., is hosting two great events taking place August 20-22:

- 51st Annual Northwest Antique Aircraft Association's Fly-in Unique antique and vintage airplanes from across the country will be on display at the historic Pearson Airfield, the oldest operating airfield in the U.S. View more than 200 planes and meet the pilots, then visit the adjacent Pearson Air Museum for a glimpse into "The Golden Age of Aviation." Admission to the Fly-in is $8 for adults and $5 for children 6-12 (under 6 are free). Admission to the museum is $7 for adults and $5 for children 6-17 (under 6 are free). For more information, visit www.fortvan.org or call (360) 816-6230.
- Concours d'Elegance
For the first time ever, the prestigious Concours d'Elegance has selected Vancouver for its showcase of classic cars. View rare autos including exotic cars like Ferraris and Alfa Romeos, along with antique cars such as Ford's Model T. More than 200 cars will be parked along the scenic Officers Row in downtown Vancouver. Tickets are just $10. For more information, visit www.columbiariverconcours.com.
