With summer's arrival, it's a great time to discover Rockridge's rich history and many restaurants, boutiques, gourmet food shops and bookstores.

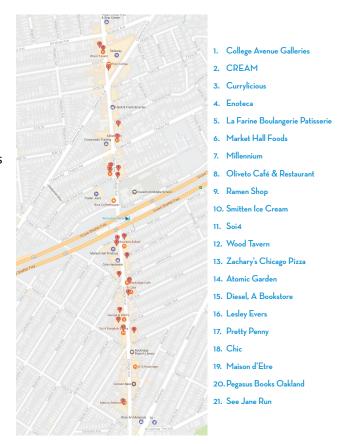

"Rockridge is one of a number of awesome North Oakland neighborhoods that embodies a warm, walkable feeling," says Dan Kalb, City Councilmember for Oakland's district one (North Oakland). "That, coupled with dozens of locally-owned shops and restaurants, makes the Rockridge neighborhood a wonderful place to visit and hang out."

"Rockridge is truly one of those hidden gems that provides an exploring visitor the ability to really experience what it's like to live like an East Bay local," says Lauren Herpich from Local Food Adventures. "I would highly recommend getting out your walking shoes, hopping on BART and bringing that reusable bag for a trip along College Avenue to some of my favorite places like Market Hall Foods and Maison d'Etre, a great home gift shop."
