NINTH ANNUAL SARATOGA RESTAURANT WEEK
Featuring Special Prix-fixe Price Points and Menus

SARATOGA SPRINGS, N.Y. – The Saratoga Convention & Tourism Bureau presents the ninth annual Saratoga County Restaurant Week taking place Friday, December 6 through Thursday, December 12, 2013.

A seven-day celebration of culinary creativity and craft presented by the Saratoga Convention & Tourism Bureau, in conjunction with restaurant owners and operators in Saratoga County, Saratoga County Restaurant Week allows dining patrons an opportunity to enjoy an appetizer or salad, a dinner entrée, and a dessert from a pre-set menu priced at $10, $20 and $30 (plus tax and tip).

There is also an opportunity to enjoy lunch specials for $5 or $10 (plus tax and tip). The restaurants will be sure to impress you with the lunch specials they put together just for Restaurant Week!

But Restaurant Week is about more than a fine meal, which you are sure to get. Many lodging properties are offering special rates for hotel rooms so diners can create an overnight package and experience more than one great dining venue. Check our website at www.discoversaratoga.org/restaurantweek for a complete list of special promotions going on during the week!

Todd Garofano, Bureau president said, “We are excited to launch Saratoga County’s Restaurant Week for 2013. The change in price structure we implemented last year was overwhelmingly successful. It allowed more restaurants (we had record 54 restaurants last year) to participate throughout the county which led to more visitors trying them. Saratoga County restaurants offer something for everyone”. He continued, “Whether you’re looking for a fine dining experience or something more casual, or maybe you want a farm to table experience with chef’s featuring local seasonal ingredients, Saratoga has it all! And our annual Restaurant Week gives folks the opportunity to try new things or visit that place they’ve always wanted to but just haven’t yet for whatever reason”.
