Amarillo CVC Wins ConventionSouth's Annual Readers' Choice Award For Fifth Time

The Amarillo Convention & Visitor Council received a 2017 Readers' Choice Award from ConventionSouth Media Group. Since the award's creation in 2001, this is the fifth time the Amarillo CVC has been voted among the South's best meeting sites.

"We thank the readers, editors and publishers of ConventionSouth for this honor, not just once but now for the fifth time. We value our meeting and convention customers and believe it shows with these awards," Dan Quandt, Vice President of the Amarillo CVC, says.

More than that, the Amarillo CVC shares this award with all our local partners. Wherever groups go, from our great facilities to our world-class attractions, they all enjoy the friendliness and service found along the way in Amarillo, Quandt says.

More than 6,000 voters, who are among the nation's best meeting professionals, participated in the award selection process this year and 300 CVBs, meeting facilities and hotels across the South made the final Readers' Choice award list. A complete list of all the winners across the South can be found at <http://conventionsouth.com/2017rcaawards/>.
