Rockford's NJCAA Championship Week Set as Region Hosts First-Ever NJCAA Championship

RVC Welcomes 2018 NJCAA DIII Women's Basketball Championship

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

March 12, 2018

ROCKFORD, IL — Alongside the host institution Rock Valley College (RVC), the Rockford Area Convention & Visitors Bureau (RACVB) welcomes the top eight Division III junior college women's basketball teams in the country to the Rockford region for the 2018 National Junior College Athletic Association (NJCAA) Division III Women's Basketball National Championship. The championship tournament will be hosted at the RVC main campus in the Physical Education Center, 3301 N. Mulford Road, Rockford, IL from Thursday, March 15 – Saturday, March 17, 2018. This is the first time that an NJCAA championship has been hosted in the Rockford area.

Teams will be traveling to the Rockford region from junior colleges in Illinois, Wisconsin, Minnesota, Connecticut, Maryland, New York and New Jersey to compete for the national championship. There will be four games played on Thursday, Friday, and Saturday of the tournament. Game times each day will be 1 p.m., 3 p.m., 6 p.m. and 8 p.m. Approximately 2,500 players, coaches and fans will visit the Rockford region throughout the weekend, as the event is projected to fill 500 room nights and generate $117,000 in estimated economic impact.

Tickets will be sold at the door for $8 general admission per day, $6 student admission per day, $20 tournament adult pass for the entire weekend or $15 student pass for the entire weekend.

"We are so excited to be hosting the 2018 NJCAA DIII National Tournament here at Rock Valley College. It gives us the opportunity to not only showcase the amazing campus of Rock Valley College, but also beauty of the entire Rock River Region," said Misty Opat, Rock Valley College athletic director and head women's basketball coach. "It is an honor to be hosting this event for the first time and for our women's basketball team to be able to show case their talents at the same time as well. I encourage all the Great Rockford Region to rally around RVC and join us at the next for 3 exciting days of basketball."

"It has been a privilege to work alongside the faculty and staff at Rock Valley College over the last two years in advance of welcoming the NJCAA Division III Women's Basketball Championship to the Rockford region for the very first time. Our community is very eager to host this group of elite basketball players, coaches and fans from around the country. In fact, the City of Rockford has proclaimed that this is officially NJCAA week in our region," said John Groh RACVB president/CEO. "The amount of support we have received from area partners and community leaders speaks volumes and shows the magnitude of our excitement for hosting a tournament of this caliber in the region. We wish all the players much success during the tournament."
