Hampton by Hilton Albany - Wolf Road is excited to announce the recent completion of a $5 million guest room renovation!

Albany, NY – Hampton by Hilton Albany - Wolf Road has announced their recent completion of a $5 million guest room renovation! The hotel welcomes local dignitaries, VIP guests and members of the Capital Region Chamber and Discover Albany to help celebrate the completion of this renovation. A special grand re-opening event has been scheduled for May 10th at 4:00 pm and will include a ribbon-cutting ceremony, open house reception and tour of the property.

Located at 10 Ulenski Drive, (adjacent to the Warehouse Grill and BBQ) the property has been a staple on the Wolf Road corridor for more than 30 years. The property is owned by Hospitality Investors Trust (HIT) and managed by Hilton Worldwide – Focused Service Division. The hotel management will be on hand to provide complete guest room tours and to answer any questions regarding this all new redesigned space!

"Our ribbon cutting celebration and open house is the culmination of many months of hard work," said Heidi Degroff, General Manager. "Thank you to the many local officials and the community for embracing this renovation project and for their unwavering support."

Hampton by Hilton offers warm surroundings; a friendly service culture and a staff that makes sure guests are 100 percent happy. Guaranteed™. The recently updated hotel offers guests brand amenities including free hot breakfast, complimentary Wi-Fi, a 24-hour business center and fitness center. Each guestroom features completely redesigned spaces, improved ergonomic design, new beds and soft goods, 43" flat screen television, microwave and refrigerator and digital key technologies. The renovation has provided the guest rooms a fresh, streamline look that was designed from the ground up for the modern traveler.
