Why Grand Rapids?

The Art of Collaboration.

Every city has buildings, places and people.

So what makes Grand Rapids different?

Grand Rapids boasts an unprecedented level of cooperation between public, private, nonprofit and philanthropic sectors – a partnership fueled by an innovative, pioneering spirit that moves the city ever forward in new and dynamic directions.

When you hold your event in Grand Rapids, you benefit from the results of this collaboration: A meetings infrastructure rivaling that of much larger cities. Leisure options that are nationally and internationally recognized. And a commitment to marshal all the city's resources to support your success.

Don't take our word for it. Talk to the leaders of the nation's largest metropolitan areas, who attended the CEOs for Cities National Meeting here.

Grand Rapids is the first "second-tier" destination ever to host this prestigious event – chosen because organizers and attendees wanted to see first-hand how collaboration can make a city soar.

It can also make your event rise above the rest. We invite you to collaborate with us to make it happen.
