Egg Tempera Artist in Solo Exhibition at Hughes Gallery

Florida artist Daniel Ambrose will exhibit his egg tempera paintings in a solo exhibition at Hughes Gallery Inc. in Boca Grande, Florida, opening January 7, 2019. An Artist's Reception is scheduled for 6-8 p.m.

Barbara Hughes, owner of Hughes Gallery Inc., said "As a Florida native, Daniel Ambrose adds immense heart and soul to Hughes Gallery. His meticulous paintings speak volumes about a certain eye some painters possess and his unique point of view has catapulted him to a 'favourite' among our serious collectors as well as those who simply love beauty. We have grown to anticipate, with bated breath, his deliveries of new works."

The serene landscape paintings of Daniel Ambrose capture the environmental treasures unique to the South and are renowned for their extraordinary luminosity and power to evoke a sense of place. His professional career spans more than 25 years.

The Hughes Gallery is located at 333 Park Avenue, Boca Grande, FL. Ambrose's paintings will be exhibited through May.
