Oakbrook Terrace, IL – The City of Oakbrook Terrace and Oakbrook Terrace businesses are once again joining forces with the Salvation Army Oakbrook Terrace Corps this holiday season to support area residents in need. Participating businesses include four hotels, Ditka's and Starbuck's.

"Throughout the year and especially this Christmas season, the Salvation Army Oakbrook Terrace Corps will provide assistance to approximately 500 families and individuals with food, toys and clothing to help them have a Very Merry Christmas," said Major John Pook of the Salvation Army Oakbrook Terrace Corps. "We as an Army cannot do this on our own and we rely on the support and generosity of local businesses to help us make a difference in the lives of people we serve. We want to invite everyone in DuPage County to join us in the 'Fight for Good' and help us make a difference in the lives of families this Christmas Season by donating to our online Red Kettle."
