

The 25 Best Resorts in the US

Whether oceanside or tucked into spectacular mountain scenery, these resorts across the country offer something for everyone, with rates ranging from affordable to luxury.

May 11, 2021

By: Mariette Williams

Top Resorts

Are you longing for an indulgent vacation in a beautiful location where ample amenities and activities are all right outside your door? HGTV has rounded up the 25 best resorts in the country from affordable (under $250 a night) to moderately priced ($250-399) to expensive ($400+) to luxury ($600+) to help in planning your next getaway.

Before booking, check with each resort for specific info about cleaning and social distancing standards.

19 / 42

Ocean House - Watch Hill, Rhode Island

The acclaimed 149-year-old Ocean House was built just after the Civil War, and sits on the bluffs of Watch Hill, Rhode Island. There are only 49 guestrooms and 18 suites, ensuring an intimate and personal stay.

Expensive

Photo By: Ocean House

20 / 42

Top of the Heap

The 18 signature multiple bedroom suites at the Ocean House are all uniquely decorated and come with full kitchens. The resort offers activities that range from art classes and croquet clinics to culinary classes.