31 Things To Do, Taste And Discover In Rhode Island In November – Rhode Island Monthly 🍁🐼

📅 On November 3, 2021 🌐 by

From Vineyard Jaunts And Holiday Performances To Tiny Art Sales For Checking Off Your List, Rhode Island Is Full Of Fun Events And Happenings In November.

11/20–1/2
Holidays at the Newport Mansions
Courtesy of Newport Mansions.
Why: Marvel at the colorful lights decorating the exterior and landscape of the Breakers mansion, then take in the Christmas extravaganza inside the Breakers and the Elms mansion, filled with dressed-up evergreens, wreaths, flowers, the famous fifteen-foot-tall poinsettia tree (Breakers only) and other festive touches along the way. As holiday music fills the air, visit the Breakers Children's Cottage with the young ones and look inside Santa's workshop.
Where: The Breakers and the Elms mansions, Newport.
More info: 847-1000, newportmansions.org

Through 11/23
Tasting Tuesdays at Newport Vineyards
Why: Can you sip and tell? Enjoy the remnants of fall at Newport Vineyards while tasting a variety of wines and beer, and maybe discover a new favorite to savor and bring home. Pair some dainty snack food options with the beverages, which is $17 per wine tasting, $15 per beer tasting, or wine and beer by the glass for $7 to $8. 11 a.m.–5 p.m.
Where: Newport Vineyards, 909 East Main Rd., Middletown.
More info: 848-5161, newportvineyards.com

11/19
Under a Partial Crimson Moon
Why: Witness the partial lunar eclipse until the sun rises at 7 a.m. at Frosty Drew. Bring a lawn chair, blankets, binoculars and some treats to celebrate as the almost-full moon passes into the Earth's dark shadow (the umbra) with only a partial piece remaining in Earth's secondary shadow (the penumbra). During the period near maximum eclipse, a part of the moon will glow a crimson red. 12:30–7 a.m. $5 suggested donation.
Where: Ninigret Park, 62 Park Ln., Charlestown.
More info: 859-1450, frostydrew.org
