Pekin Restaurant week offers local food enthusiasts an opportunity to experience some of the city's most highly sought restaurants. Three patrons will be awarded Chamber Checks after submitting proof of purchases to the Pekin Area Chamber of Commerce website before February 12, 2022.

"We are excited to highlight the variety of restaurant options available to our Pekin residents and guests throughout the region," says Executive Director Amy McCoy of the Pekin Area Chamber of Commerce.

McCoy reflects for a community of Pekin's size, the niched options are a unique reason to visit.

"Delicious pizza, steak and salmon dinners, Irish faire, best donuts around; there's just a great selection here!"

The Pekin Area Chamber of Commerce continues to promote Shop Local events throughout the year: a crucial endeavor to support growth and expansion of the Pekin business community. Pekin Restaurant Week will offer residents an opportunity to engage in their community and nurture a connection with where they live.

Accounting for the impact of COVID-19 on small businesses – and with support of the restaurant industry at heart – the Pekin Area Chamber of Commerce has included dine-in as well as delivery and carry-out menu options as part of the promotion. This increases opportunities for residents and visitors to participate despite an increasing positivity rate throughout Central Illinois.
