Frederick Restaurant Week to make its delicious return in March

FREDERICK, MD - Frederick Restaurant Week returns this March, bringing seven days of tasty opportunities for unique dining across Frederick County.

Visit Frederick, the Downtown Frederick Partnership, Main Street Middletown, and the Frederick News-Post are working together to host the event, slated to run from March 7 to March 13. There are 17 restaurants participating in the winter iteration of the event.

Participating locations will feature multi-course meals at appetizing prices, providing the perfect opportunity to visit an old favorite or try something new. Reservations are highly encouraged for diners looking to take advantage of this special week on the Frederick dining scene.

Participating restaurants include:

Anchor Bar
Brewer's Alley
Bushwaller's Irish Pub
Cellar Door
Firestone's Culinary Tavern
Frederick Social
Il Porto
Jerk N Jive Bar and Kitchen
JoJo's Restaurant & Tap House
Magoo's Pub & Eatery
The Main Cup
Mayta's Peruvian Cuisine
Pistarro's
Showroom
South Mountain Creamery
Thacher & Rye
The Wine Kitchen on the Creek

The menus for each of the participating restaurants can be found at the Frederick Restaurant Week website. Diners are encouraged to share their Restaurant Week experiences by using the hashtag #FredRestWK on social media.

Sponsors for March's Restaurant Week include: City of Frederick Office of Economic Development, Frederick Magazine, and Postern.
