

A Quintessential New England Summer at Weekapaug Inn

Nestled on the Rhode Island shoreline overlooking Quonochontaug Pond sits the historic Weekapaug Inn, a Forbes five-star Relais & Châteaux property. The Inn has mastered “barefoot luxury” as its accommodations effortlessly combine casual comfort and luxurious furnishings. Offering farm-to-table dining and resort activities alongside a resident naturalist, Weekapaug Inn sets the standard for East Coast family vacationing.

Indulge in Coastal Flavors

Begin your beach day with a locally sourced breakfast omelette and freshly baked goods at The Restaurant before heading outside for a glorious New England day. Walk over to The Bathhouse, just steps away from the beach, for some relaxing shade and an icy cold Del’s Lemonade – a native Rhode Island treat – before gathering for dinner at The Deck, the Inn’s outdoor dining venue with sweeping Pond Views. Treat yourself to a fresh East Coast lobster roll, a creamy cup of New England clam chowder or a delicious starter of Rhode Island calamari while taking in the Pond views and enjoying some much-needed family time.

Family-Friendly Activities

Choose from an array of daily activities with fun for all ages. Morning yoga for Mom, Jeep or electric car tour for Dad, Land of Paug scavenger hunt for the little ones and evening s'mores for everyone. The Inn's unique outdoor offerings couple with the property's dedication to sustainability of Weekapaug's natural surroundings. Join the on-site naturalist for a kayak or paddleboard excursion. Disconnect from the business of everyday life and reconnect with nature, spotting wildlife along the scenic breachway or getting your hands dirty crabbing in the sand.
