Chapel Hill/Orange County (NC) 2022-2023 Official Visitors Guide and Visitors Map Now Available

Chapel Hill, NC - (September 12, 2022) – The Chapel Hill/Orange County (NC) Visitors Bureau has published a new edition of its annual Official Visitors Guide and Official Visitors Map for use in 2022-2023.

The bureau has returned to a 64-page guide featuring Chapel Hill, Carrboro, Hillsborough, Orange County and the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill. A pull-out perforated map is again included as well as parking maps for the towns' downtowns. Find user-friendly listings of accommodations, shopping, attractions & entertainment, restaurants, coffee shops and nightlife, top festivals and events and essential facts and resources.

New to this guide is information about accessibility in Orange County, free things to do, ideas for kids & families and a "Take Home a Taste of Orange" page highlighting locally made products.

"Our annual Visitors Guide consistently provides fresh updated content to tens of thousands of annual visitors to Orange County who seek ideas on where to stay, dine, shop and explore," said Laurie Paolicelli, director of the Chapel Hill/Orange County Visitors Bureau.

The 2022-2023 Visitors Guide, a comprehensive resource for residents, visitors, meeting and conference attendees and others planning a trip to the Chapel Hill & Orange County, NC area, features a wrap cover photo of the new Chapel Hill & Orange County Welcome Center on West Franklin Street.

The companion piece to the visitors guide is a multi-panel Official Visitors Map with a matching cover. The map is a detailed look at visitor resources throughout the county.

To request a copy be mailed to you, call (919) 245-4320 or email info@visitchapelhill.org. Free copies can also be picked up at the Welcome Center at 308 W. Franklin St., Chapel Hill, Monday – Friday 8:30 am – 5 pm or select Saturdays 10 am – 3 pm.
