It's happening. And there's nothing we can do to slow it down, so I'm jumping on board the Christmas train. It hit me over the weekend in Home Depot. Christmas music was playing, and it was 73 degrees outside. The holiday vomit is everywhere (figuratively speaking, of course). Therefore, I suggest little bites of the big picture. Here's one of them.

The tourist publication, Travel & Leisure has released a list of the 25 best Christmas towns in the USA. I tore open the shutter (for better lighting to read into this story), when what to my wondering eyes should appear, but 4 charming little New England Towns named as the best for Christmas cheer. On Mass, on New Hampshire, On Rhode Island and Maine! We're so proud to see that you have been named! So, now I will name names. Congratulations to Nantucket, Massachusetts, Newport, Rhode Island, Portsmouth, New Hampshire and Ogunquit, Maine. Find out where they fell within the top 25 of the "best holiday destinations in the country for you to travel to in December." (Travel & Leisure)

14. Newport, Rhode Island

Newport, famous for its “summer cottages” of the Gilded age, the mansions get dressed up in their finest Christmas couture and respectfully bedazzle. In this upscale New England city “only white lights are encouraged on homes and restaurants, to conjure an old-fashioned candlelit vibe,” according to Travel & Leisure.
