Looking to spend more quality time with your mom (or daughter) while making lifelong memories? If the answer's yes, consider embarking on an epic mother-daughter beach getaway for some much-needed bonding. Whether you choose to stay close to home in the US or hop on a long-haul flight, options abound. From the blue waters of the Caribbean to the towering dunes out in the Hamptons, here are 10 of our favorite mother-daughter beach vacation ideas to inspire your future travels.

Newport, Rhode Island

This coastal New England city is home to Gilded Age mansions, a vibrant downtown area, and, of course, pristine beaches. Even better? Many of Newport's best stretches of sand are within easy walking distance of downtown, which means you're never too far from all the fun and fantastic food that await. The scenic Easton's Beach — ideally located at the beginning of the famous Cliff Walk — spans three-quarters of a mile. Alternatively, those craving a quieter atmosphere should check out Gooseberry Beach along the 10-mile-long Ocean Drive.
