

10 Honeymoon Destinations For Couples Looking To Hit The Beach After A Spring Wedding

A romantic beach vacation might be the perfect choice for couples seeking a serene getaway after their spring weddings.

BY MARIA BOU INK PUBLISHED JAN 15, 2024

Choosing to tie the knot in the spring, adorned with blooming flowers, provides couples with a plethora of options for their dream honeymoon. Spring, much like marriage, symbolizes a beautiful transition, and the two seamlessly complement each other. Newlyweds can relish sun-filled days and the allure of blossoming flowers, a welcome contrast to the lingering winter chill. A romantic beach vacation might be the perfect choice for those seeking a serene getaway. Planning for the perfect honeymoon is a task best undertaken early, ensuring that every detail aligns with the couple's ideal vision for their post-nuptial retreat. To make it easier, here are 10 honeymoon destinations for couples looking to hit the beach after a spring wedding.

5 Newport, Rhode Island, USA

Beach activities and infinite festivals

Sunset at Castle Hill Lighthouse, Newport, Rhode Island

Newport, one of America's earliest resorts, gained prominence with opulent summer homes built by the likes of Cornelius Vanderbilt. These mansions offer glimpses into the lavish lifestyles. The city, rich in maritime history, boasts magnificent houses and provides opportunities for beach activities, sailing, dining, shopping, and hiking. Spring brings vitality, with 1.3 million daffodils blooming, Newport Restaurant Week, and the Newport Night Run in mid-April. Nearby Bristol features a daffodil-filled garden and Blythewood Mansion in April. Fort Adams State Park hosts the Newport Drink Festival at the end of April, and May brings the Newport Oyster and Chowder Festival with champagne.