Expect to see all-new food vendors like Gooley Cakes and Mr. Wally’s Pickles and returning favorites like Bartley’s BBQ and Steak on a Stake.

As families explore the festival grounds, they’ll have the opportunity to peruse vendor booths offering everything from arts and crafts to pet-friendly products. There will be all-new artisans this year as well including Hooked Up Baits and Whiskey Morning Coffee. And Main Street shops like Rocket Fizz, Let’s Pretend and Talking Animals Book Store promise unique finds and treasures waiting to be discovered.

LIVE MUSIC

Of course, no festival would be complete without music, and Main Street Fest delivers with four stages showcasing regional and local talent throughout the event. Whether attendees are tapping their toes to familiar tunes or discovering new favorites, the sounds of Main Street Fest will provide the perfect backdrop to a weekend of fun and celebration.

Casey Donahew brings his signature sound to headline Friday night on the Main Stage sponsored by Arca Continental Coca-Cola Southwest Beverages. Get ready to sing along to hits like "One Star Flag" and "She Likes to Fly" under the Texas sky. Then, step back into some 90s nostalgia! Deep Blue Something, the band behind the iconic hit "Breakfast at Tiffany's," headlines Saturday night.

At the Gazebo Stage, sponsored by Karbach Brewing Company, guests will groove once again to the sounds of The Inspiration Band!!! as they deliver high-energy performances on all three days of the event, from 11:15 a.m. – 7 p.m. Friday and Saturday and all day Sunday.

CRAFT BREWS

Main Street Fest has three craft brew areas to enjoy, including the Craft Brew Experience sponsored by Gaylord Texan complete with a VIP Lounge, and Texas on Tap sponsored by Karbach Brewing over at the Town Square Gazebo featuring Texas craft brews and wines.

The Cotton Belt Country Club, sponsored by Whataburger, Direct Impact Golf and Sam's Club is all-new Down on Main Street. Test your skills with a nine-hole miniature golf course, long-putt competition and long-drive contests. Refuel with some snacks from the Caddyshack including the famous pimento cheese sandwiches like you would enjoy at the Masters, and craft brews, too.
