Lighthouse Inlet Bird Walk

Fri., June 12, 7:30 a.m. – 9:30 a.m.

Entrance at Lighthouse Inlet Heritage Preserve

This walk focuses on the incredibly diverse northeast end of Folly Island. Once the home of a Coast Guard station, this Heritage Preserve protects maritime forest, beach, dune, and marsh habitats for wildlife. This site boasts one of the largest bird lists in South Carolina. At this time of year, we hope to see Painted Buntings and Wilson's Plovers, plus much more. What to expect: This program is open to birders of all levels, including beginners. No accessible parking available. No restrooms are available. The park includes paved surface that leads to natural, unimproved surface out to a sandy beach. The program route is out and back and is approximately one-mile-long total.

Understanding the Rice Culture

Sat., June 13, 11 a.m. – 12:30 p.m.

Entrance at Caw Caw Interpretive Center

To talk about land in the Lowcountry is an automatic invite to talk about rice, who grew it, where it came from, and how cultivation changed the landscape in ways that are still evident today. Caw Caw Interpretive Center provides one of the best local looks in the Lowcountry. What to expect: Accessible parking, accessible restrooms, accessible water fountains, and accessible picnic tables are available at the Welcome Center where the program begins and ends. The park includes natural, unpaved trails that are mostly flat. The program route is a loop, and benches are available along the trail route. The program speed is moderately slow and includes periods of standing.

Beginner Nature Photography for the Master Naturalist

Thu., June 18, 9:30 a.m. – 4 p.m.

Classroom at Caw Caw Interpretive Center

Master Naturalist advanced training opportunities provide exposure and skill development in areas such as natural history, natural resource management, and nature interpretation. To keep a Master Naturalist certification current, you must take at least eight hours of advanced training per year. As a Master Naturalist, it's important to understand how to capture sharp, well-exposed images with accurate color rendition to be able to correctly identify and record your sightings. If you are new to digital photography or want to better understand how to control your camera to take better photos, this is your class! We'll concentrate our learning on The Exposure Triangle of ISO, shutter speed, and aperture; equivalent exposures; white balance; monitor calibration; composition, and more. You'll learn why it's important to get out of Auto modes, which settings to use and when, and just as importantly which ones to NOT use! We'll also have hands-on camera time, so you'll be confidently using your camera before you leave.

Jubilee Juice: The Red Drink

Fri., June 19, 9:30 a.m. – 3:30 p.m.

Welcome Center at McLeod Plantation Historic Site

Join local Juneteenth celebrations at McLeod Plantation Historic Site for a special exploration of history, heritage, and the liquid lineage of the African Diaspora. Jubilee Juice: The Red Drink dives deep into the crimson glass to uncover the profound cultural legacy of "the red drink" within African American communities. Tracing its roots from the traditional hibiscus teas (Bissap) of West Africa to its modern-day role as a symbol of celebration and resilience, this program offers a sensory journey through time. Participants will learn how this vibrant beverage served as a spiritual connection to their ancestors and a bold testament to the ingenuity of a people who preserved culture through flavor. Join us as we honor the strength of those who came before us and toast to the enduring spirit of freedom. What to expect: This is a free program included with admission to McLeod Plantation Historic Site. Registration is not required. The program will take place inside the house, and participants are welcome to come and go at their own pace between 9:30AM-3:30PM. Limited tasting supplies will be provided.

Adaptive Climbing Day - Adult

Sun., June 28, 1 – 3 p.m.

Climbing Wall at Outdoor Adventure Center at James Island

We're partnering with Catalyst Sports to host a monthly adaptive climbing meetup? A welcoming and supportive space for climbers with disabilities. Whether your brand new to climbing or a seasoned pro, this community is all about overcoming obstacles together, fostering growth, and celebrating every step of the journey. Adaptive climbers will find an encouraging environment that highlights individual strengths and embraces the excitement of climbing. Empower yourself, reach new heights, and connect with a community where every achievement matters. Interested in Volunteering? We'd love your help! Volunteers must register with both CCPRC and Catalyst Sports and complete a required training. Please sign up with Catalyst using the link below and reach out to us for more information. Register through Catalyst Sports. Registration is required for both climbers and volunteers through Catalyst, in addition to registering with CCPRC. Teen Expedition - Whitewater Kayak

Mon., June 22 – Fri., June 26, 1-Week Session

Wappoo at James Island County Park

Looking for something cool to do this summer? Join us on an expedition to the mountains of North Carolina, where we'll beat the summer heat by kayaking on Class I II whitewater rivers. Campers can anticipate a week filled with camping, cooking, and paddling? All while building friendships and forging confidence that will last for years to come. On Monday, we will leave for Western North Carolina and base camp at Tsali Recreation Area. Throughout the week, we will build our paddle skills on Lake Fontana and the Tuckasegee River. We will return to James Island County Park on Friday. Please note: This session has four overnights. For additional camp information click here.
